Having fun and selling pictures for year-book club are seniors; Kelli Smith and Mike Overton.

Strutting campus was too cool as shown by Shawn Craig, Bobby States, freshman, and Al Page, senior.

Cortez Yearbook Staffers went to camp during the summer to make our yearbook "Better Than Ever." Kelley VanGundy, junior, John Celaya, sophomore, and Jeff DiMaria, junior.

Colt offense — Bustin' through the pack.

Definite fun was expressed by Lisa Webb and Stacey Smith, Seniors.

Walking to class was "Oh so exciting" as shown by Toni Tingley and Spephanie Mull, Seniors.

"BETTER THAN EVER!"

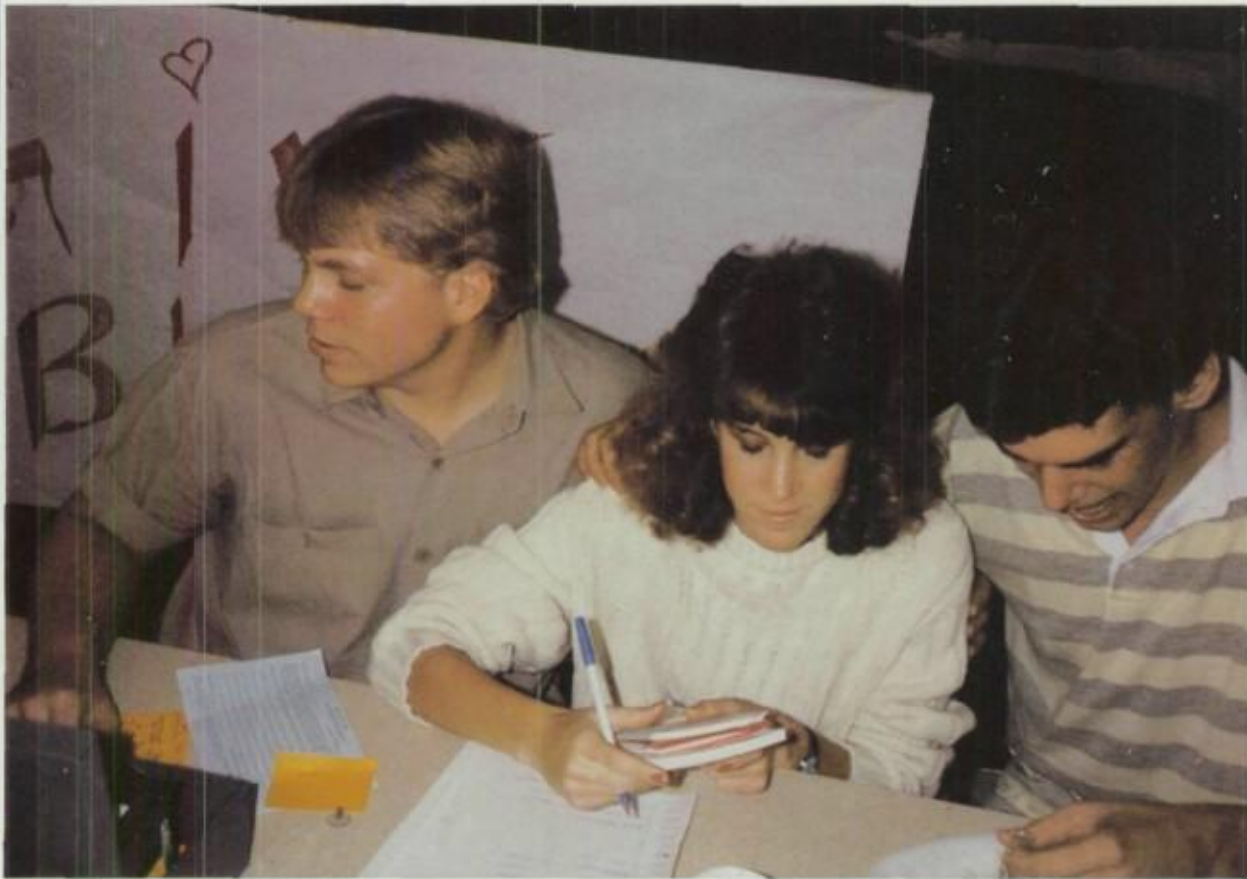

Cortez has seen 26 years of different students and staff. Along with these years have come themes, songs, and mot-tos. Our fight song, our motto — Together, our Alma Mater, and our many themes.

Themes from homecoming, school spirit, and yearbook, — "Dancing through the decades", "We've Got A New Attitude," and "Better Than Ever!"

"We've Got A New Attitude!," is what you'll hear the Colt Spiritline cheering. This is the first year for the spiritline, and the girls wanted to show Cortez that even with the end of pom and cheer our new spiritline has taken on a new attitude and they're better than ever!

In the past 26 years, Cortez has gone through many changes. Every year has brought more to Cortez, and when Cortez's activities ex-panded to its ultimate — we im-proved everything. Everything from buildings, staff, sports, clubs, academics, and Students.

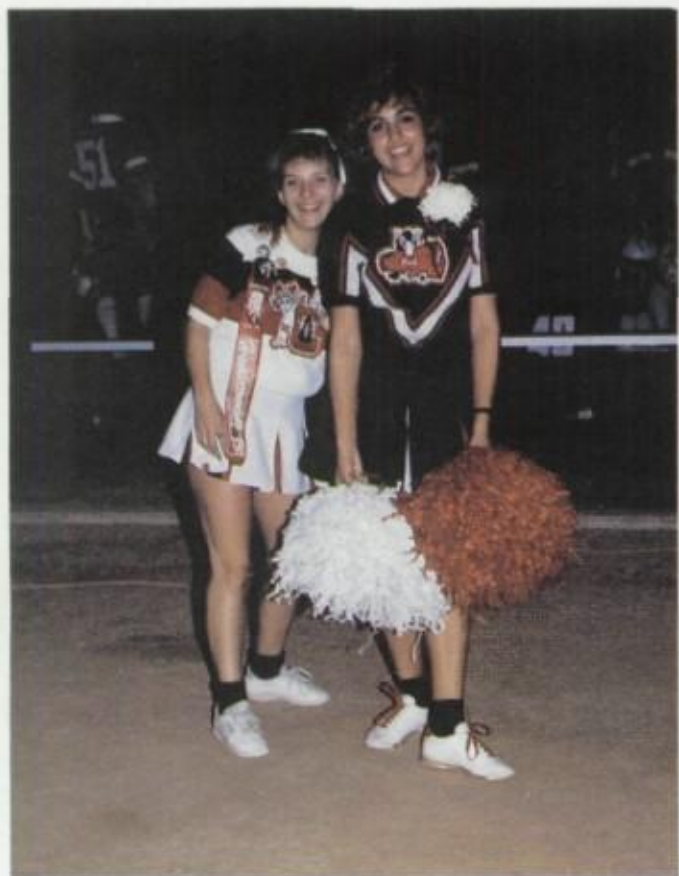

We feel our theme fits us perfect, because we are "Better Than Ever!"

Sign-ups for the blood drive and tailgate party were conducted by; Scott Matas, senior, Sarah Matheson and John Akin, juniors.

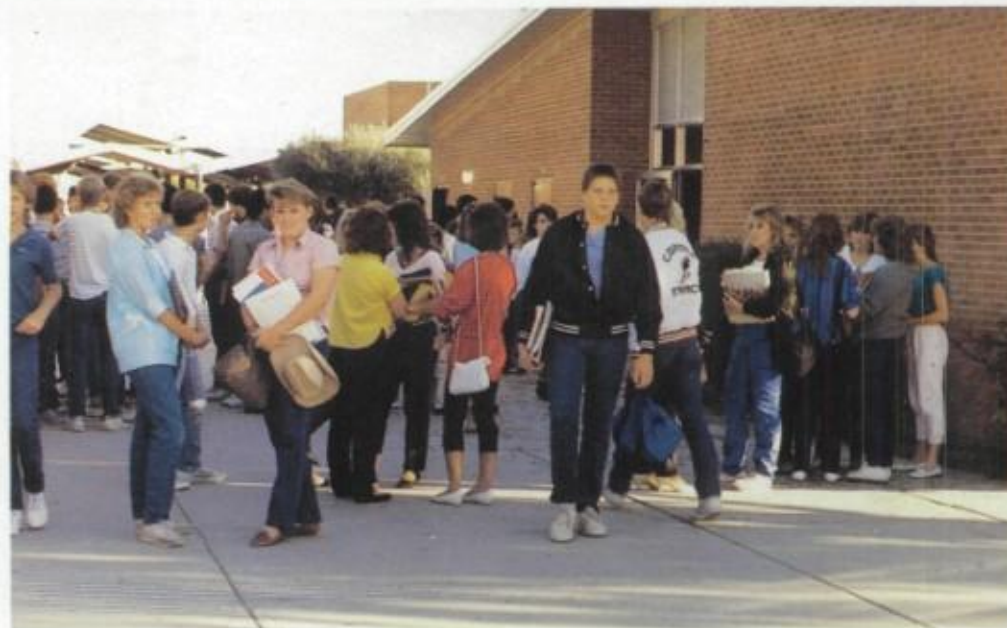

Leading the band are: Glen Ormiston, freshman, Jay Davies, senior, Lenny Rogers, freshman.

Students talk and walk between classes.

SCHOOL SPIRIT IS EVERYWHERE

Cortez spirit displayed a noticeable difference this year. It was everywhere to be seen! At football games, dances, assemblies and even in the classroom. People were anxious to get involved with dress-up days to show off their wild new outfits.

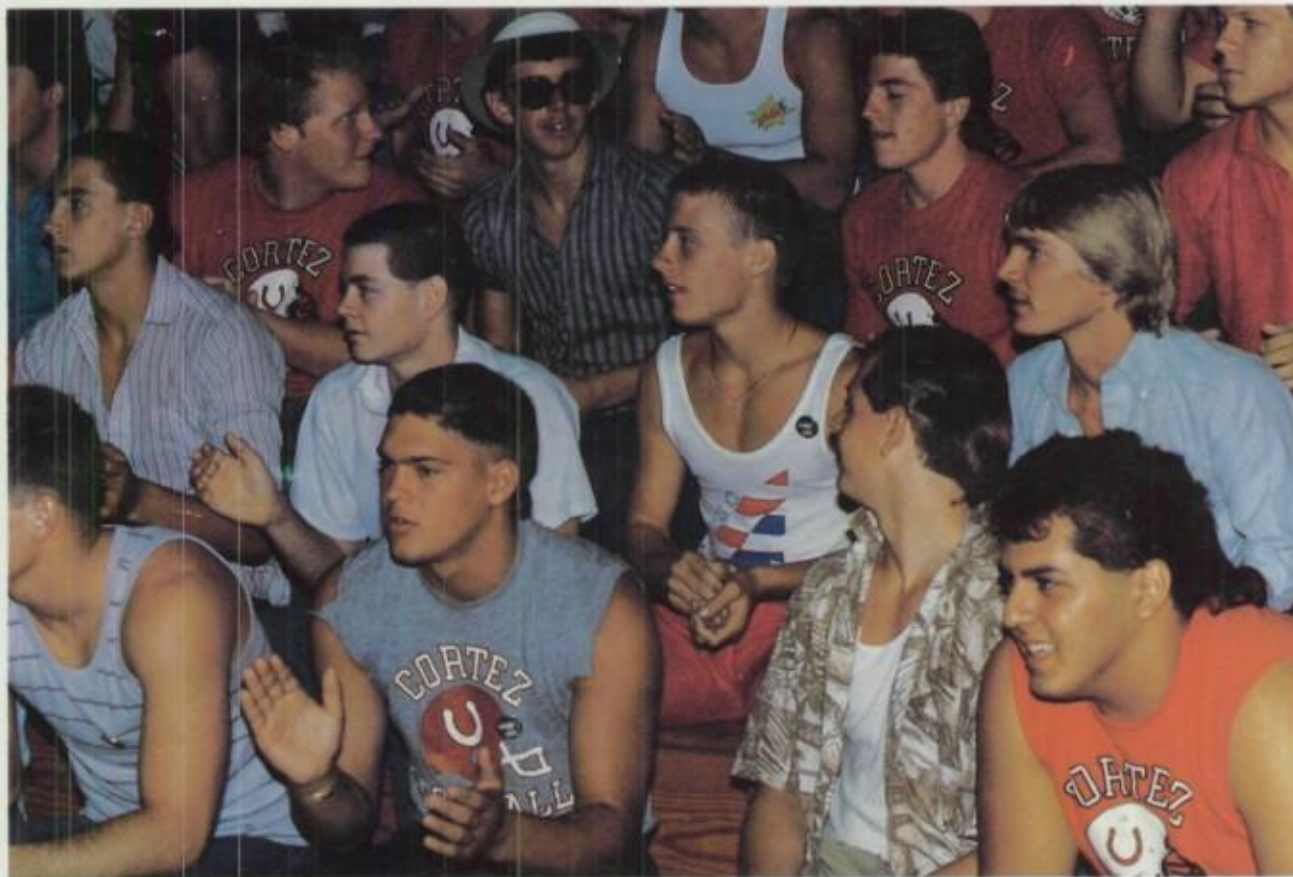

Football games are "too cool" as shown by Bob Terpstra, senior, Brian Imboden and Craig Treese, juniors.

Diane Krietler when asked about school spirit assemblies stated: "It was really up, the whole attitude was uplifting!"

Class participation was very enthusiastic as well. People were willing to make themselves look like fools because they knew it was fun. Many people also enjoyed just kicking back and watching all of the excitement.

"Cortez is Together" and "Cortez has a New Attitude" were phrases being said around campus. These phrases are what helped build Cortez's spirit. Everyone being a part of Cortez made it an honor to say "I go to Cortez."

Cortez Spirit is Better than Ever.

Cortez football boosts spirit at first assembly.

Senior "flashers" dress up to welcome freshmen; Joe Gaynor, Jay Claus, Paul Stanton, and Scott Matas — Srs.

Juniors show to be part of spirited crowd; Jin Yi Kim and Monica Castillo.

GRACE UNDER PRESSURE

With all the pressures, activities, and tasks a senior has to deal with seniors from other high schools would scream their heads off, meanwhile Cortez seniors merely say, "It's Casual."

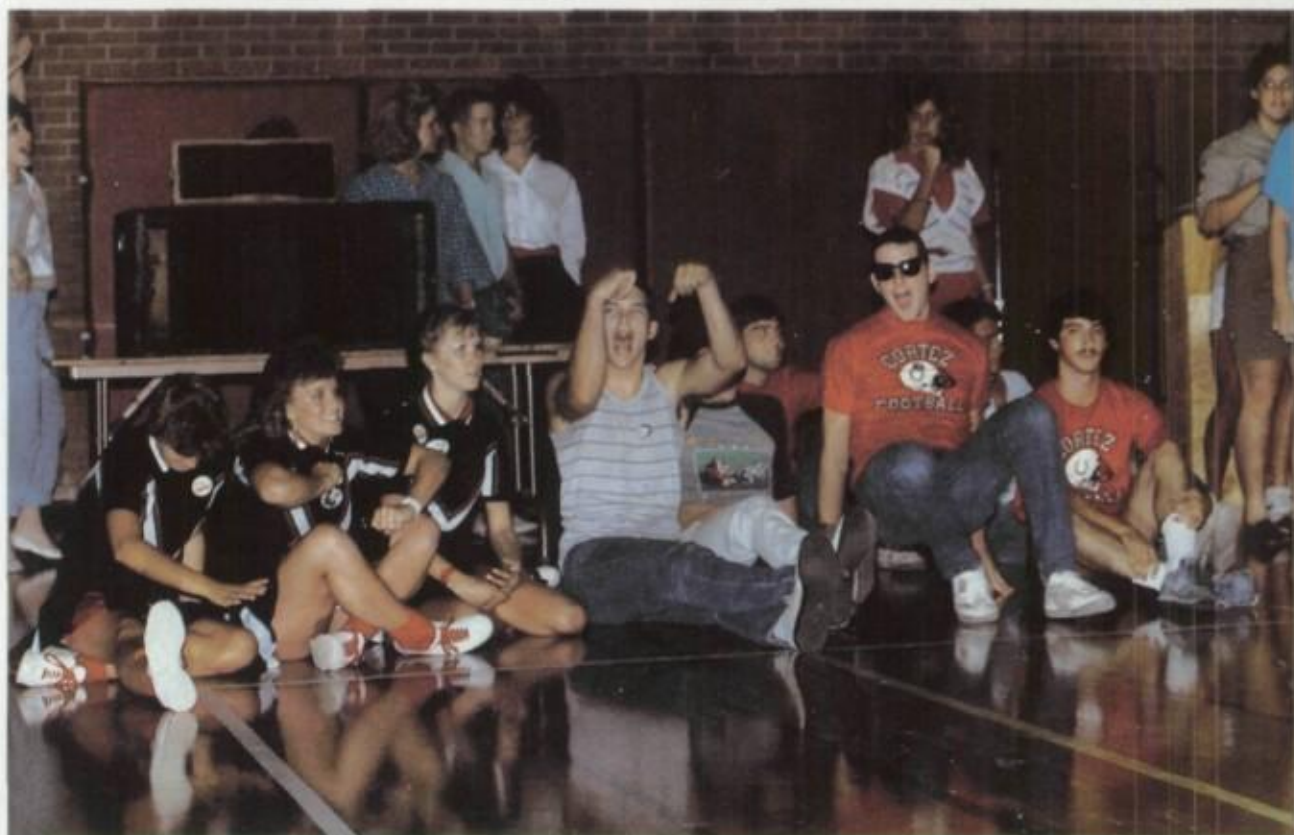

Many seniors concentrate on their academics, studying for the next government test or preparing to take the ACT or SAT college tests. Others are concentrating on sports, hoping they might receive a generous scholarship.

Working, going to school, and being involved is the case for many seniors. It's a busy schedule to follow, and getting used to an average of five to six hours of sleep a night isn't too hard.

Other subjects that seniors were OFTEN reminded about were; having their senior pictures taken, turning in a 2 x 3 black and white glossy into the yearbook staff, and also turning in a color photo for the front page senior surprise.

With a New Attitude Grace Under Pressure wasn't hard. Why? Because we're "Better Than Ever!"

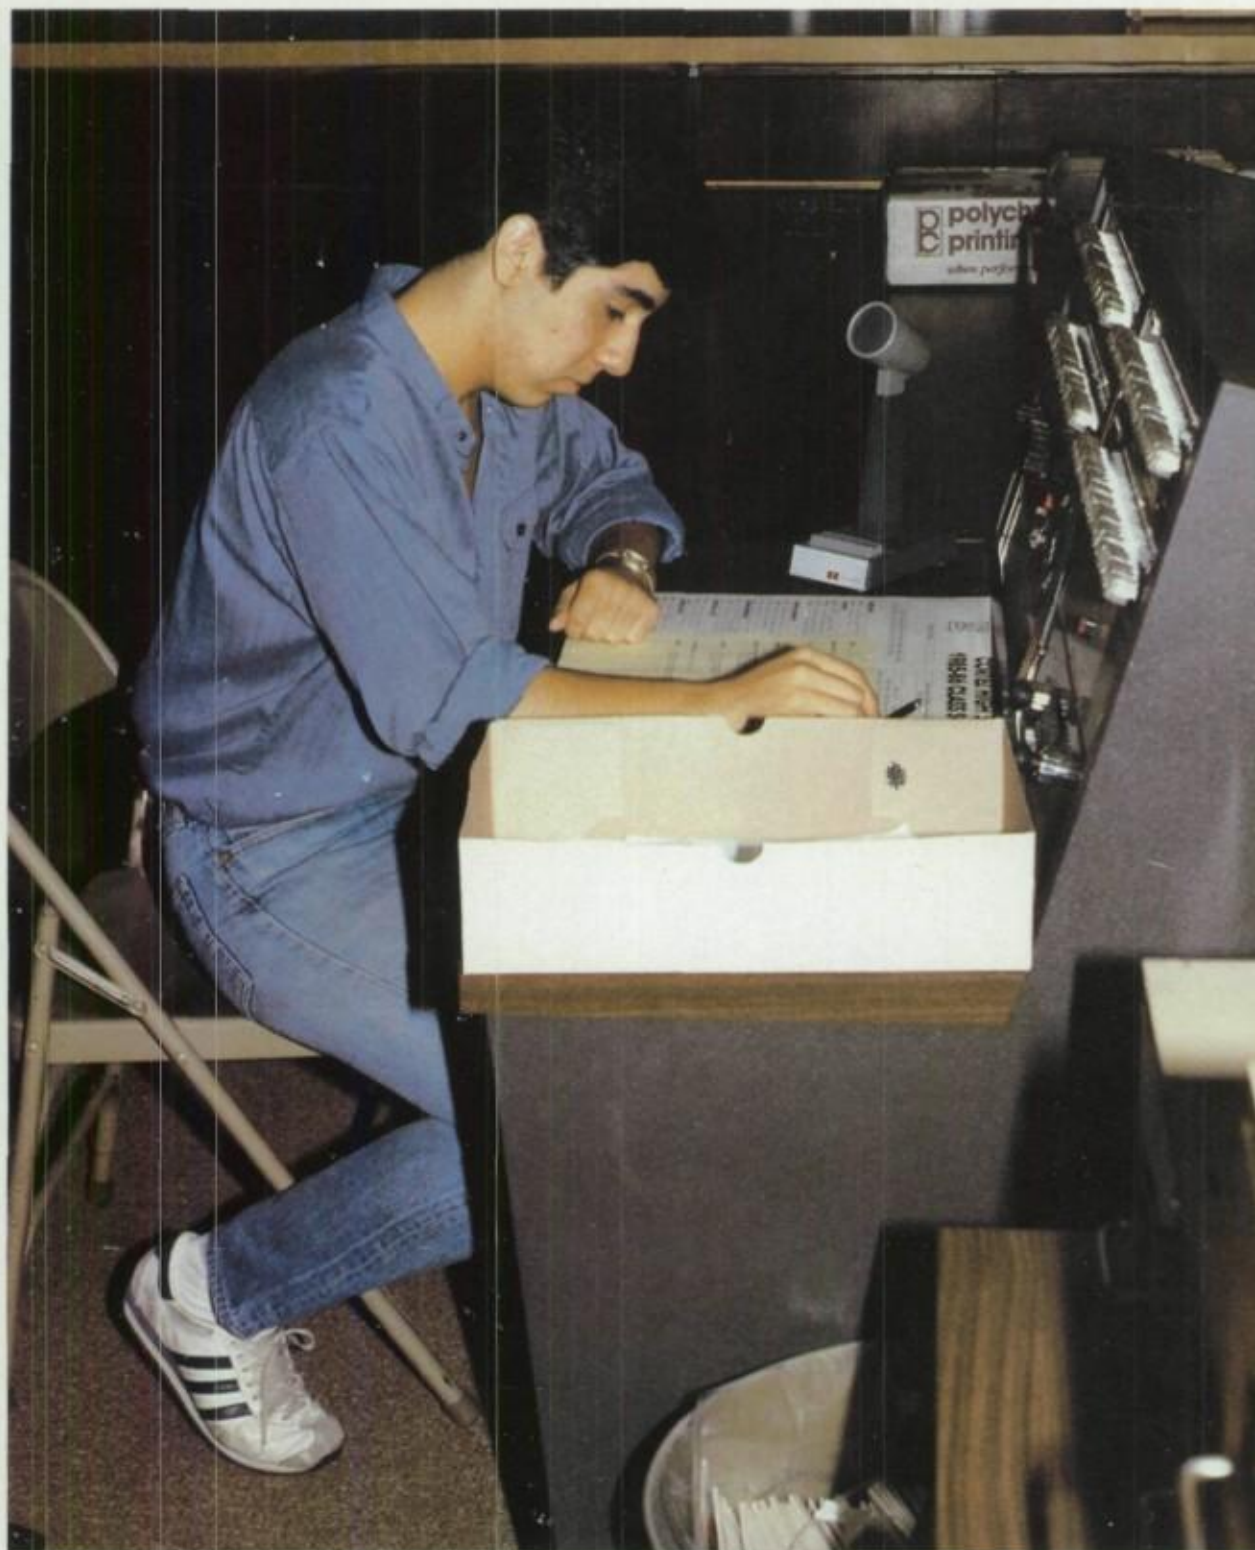

SENIORS ARE HOT!!

Getting rowdy and having fun at our first assembly are seniors: Angel Stahler, Teisha Leavens, Kelli Greer, Ragen Hunt, Lon White, and David Fuller.

A'rousin and A'routin for Varsity spiritline is Angel Stahler, Senior.

"I like being a senior because I can finally get out of school early." — Rick Lemons, Senior

"My senior year is going great because I think I have a chance for a volleyball scholarship." — Traci Sims, Senior

"Being an active senior gets to be pretty busy, but I always manage to have lots of fun." — Veronica Lucas, Senior

JUNIOR LIFE

UPPERCLASSMEN!

FINALLY!!

This year's Junior class was really spirited! So many things changed this year, one thing was that many of us could drive after 16 long years of waiting!

Juniors also had people on Varsity sports, and that was fun to go see all of your friends play. Another advantage of being a JUNIOR was that friends could drive to school and we could finally go out for a decent lunch.

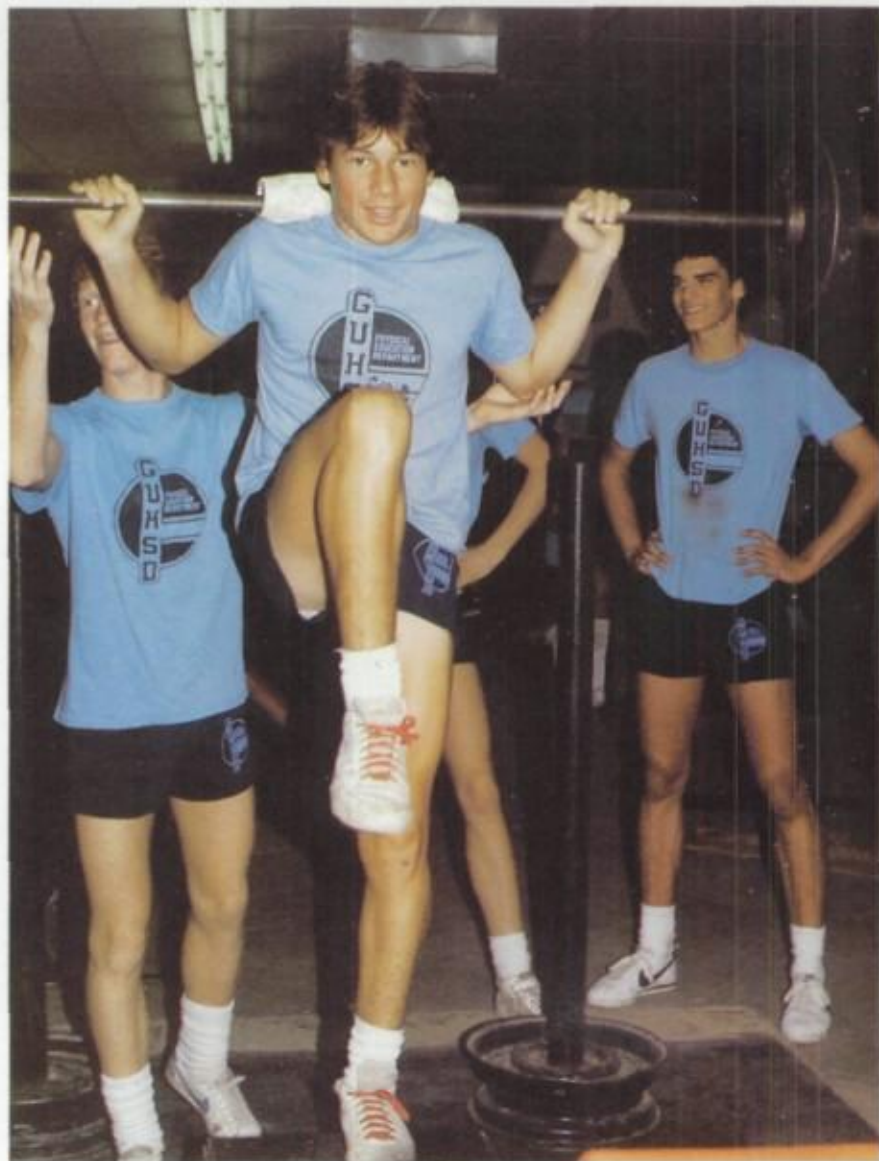

Volleyball games help to share great times between Junior friends; Dalene Draughn, Kristin Allen, Kim Smith, and Chris Garcia.

Helping to boost Craig Treese's, junior ego are Brian Imboden and John Akin, juniors.

BUT — as you can imagine our social lives got much better. "SUPER DUPER" — was going to all the fun places on the weekends.

If this was an Upper-Lower classmen year, we can't wait to be UPPER-UPPER classmen!

WATCH OUT!!!

Sharing game ideas are Marci Mondotte, Junior, Mrs. Anderson, and Kim Smith, junior.

On their way to set up for the blood drive and tailgate party sign-ups are: Sarah Matheson and Kristin Allen, juniors.

Exhausted after an assembly is Stormi Nash, junior.

Yearbook Photographer, Jeff DiMaria, Junior, opposes this shot.

SOPHOMORES ARE DEFINITELY BETTER THAN EVER!

To many, Sophomore year was the true beginning of their High School years. It was the feeling of becoming well adjusted to CORTEZ and an even better chance to become involved with school activities. That and meeting more friends made Sophomores such as these have an even more enjoyable year than their first.

"This year was better because you knew more people and you finally got to rule over the freshmen." — Scott Siegreist

"Sophomore year was better because you were used to everything and didn't feel like such an outcast anymore." — John Serna

"Sophomore year you could really be yourself and not worry about being thought of as the ultimate freshman." — Jennifer Roberts

It seems like sophomores this year felt more at home with CORTEZ. Those trying out for sports found the possibility of being able to play on a Varsity team, while during freshman year that was almost impossible. Other sophomores choose to sit back and make the best of their eleventh year in school.

As in every day, paying for a "cafeteria" lunch was part of life as shown by: Ker Young and Mike Hart, sophomores.

Rona Pride and Cecilia Scavone show how great a sophomore friendship is.

Selling spirit pom poms for the volleyball game is Amy Parker, So.

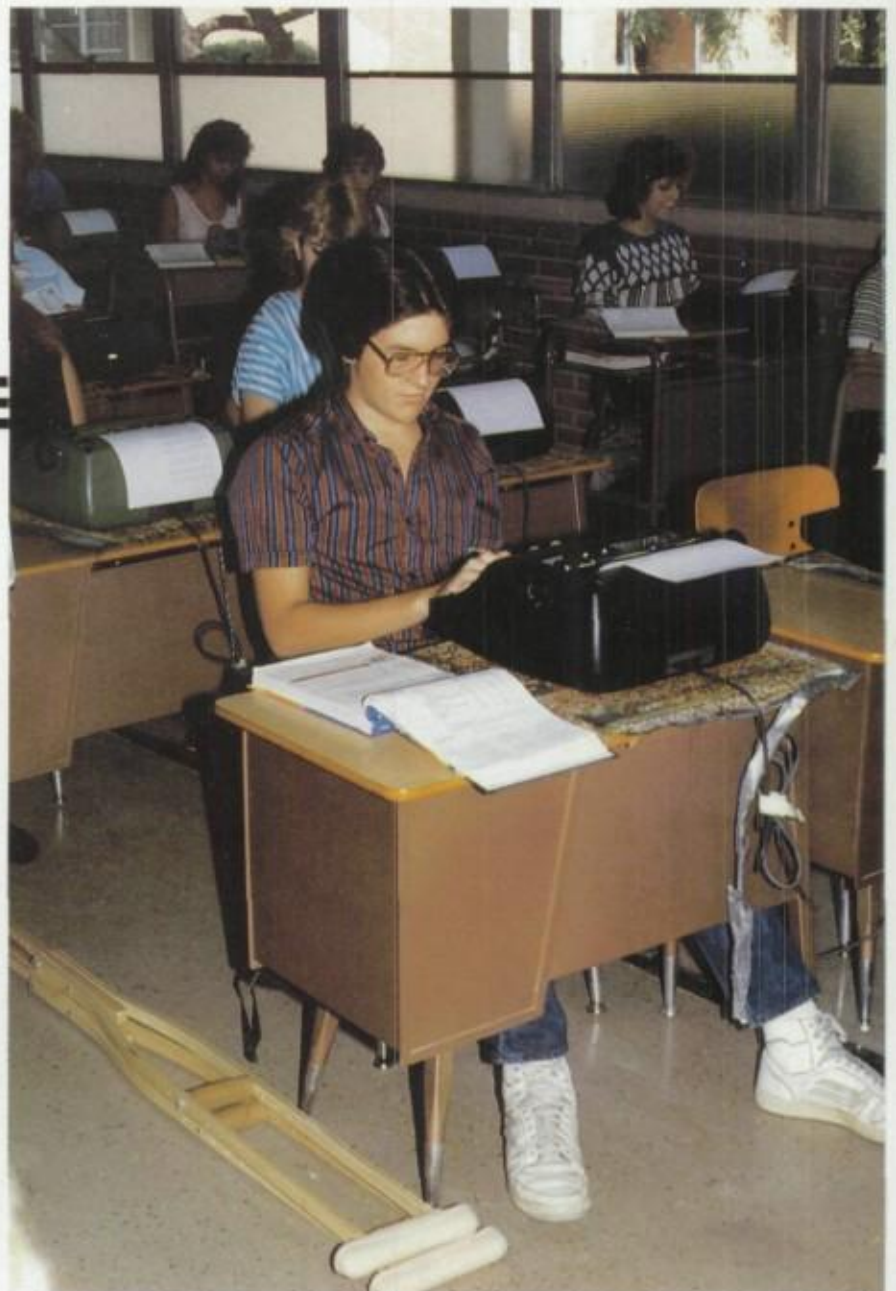

Tim Ward and Lynn Elliot share a bite at lunch.

COLTS OF '88

Onlooking their first assembly are Jackie Wheeler and Jackie Reighty, freshmen.

Looking straight into the camera's eye has always been a freshman trait, as shown by: Mike Cornwell, Matt Burklow, and Eddie Grant.

This spirited freshman assembly was held in our auditorium.

MOVIN' ON

NEW EXPERIENCES

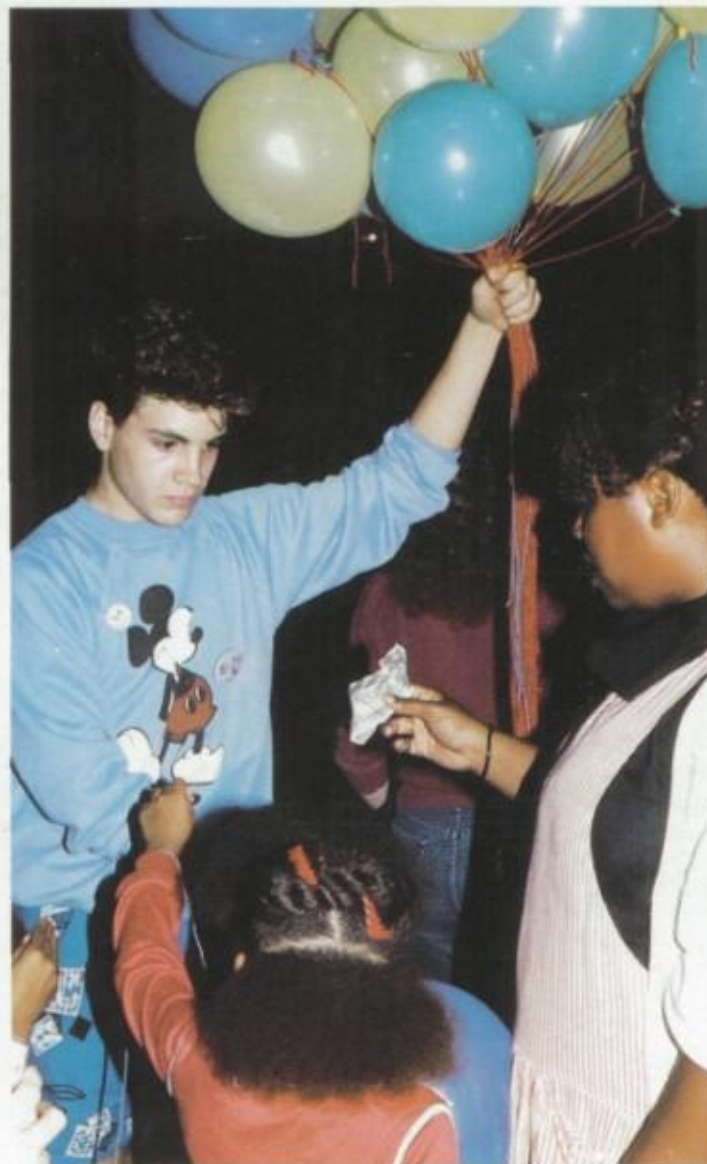

As their freshman year started off many had no idea what the year would bring. There were only a handful that still came from grade schools — those few had to learn how to adjust to high school life. While most of the freshmen came from Jr. Highs. To most freshmen Jr. High was just a small "prep" of what high school was really about. Classes were harder, rules were stricter, but most of all they were longer than Jr. High classes.

A new advantage to freshman this year was that there were more clubs to join and more fun to have at school events.

HOMECOMING!!

SPIRIT SHINES THROUGH

Dancing through the Decades was the theme for Homecoming 1985.

Spirit week set the mood for Friday's game. From dressing up to finding out who was King and Queen — the week was filled with fun and festivities.

Starting off the week: Monday was Western day. Tuesday was 50's day when we were all reminded of the past episodes of "Happy Days." Wednesday was 60's day where the "Brady Bunch" was brought back to life. Thursday was Hawaiian day, everyone all of a sudden became tourists and dressed "Beachy" and then went to a Luau! Friday was SPIRIT day and all the students dressed up in School Colors. And to add to the mood, the school was decorated with balloons and streamers, and writing on the sidewalks.

All in all, spirit week was a success. The game was won, the Colts spirit was high, and the Alumni enjoyed returning to find that our school spirit was even better. "C.H.S. is looking pretty Hot!" I haven't had that much fun in a long time." said Kris Kennedy, 1984 Homecoming Queen.

Havin' fun with their spirited Beach skit is the Varsity spiritline. Beth Quaing, Kim Smith, juniors, and Stephanie Duffy and Kelli Greer, Seniors.

CORTEZ DANCES THROUGH THE DECADES

HOMECOMING NIGHT TOO EXCITING!

Homecoming night was an event that just could not be overlooked. Student council, campus clubs, faculty, and students prepared all week for the excitement.

Judging for the floats and banners began at 5:30. Then the participants left for home awaiting the big night and the announcement of the winning float, banner, and royalty.

Kickoff started at 7:30 with the Colts hosting the Washington Rams. During this time the senior class was preparing the gym for the big dance. At Half time the floats rolled around the track, with the winning float leading. The Senior class (of '86) waited four years to take first. Their mini-theme was the "Roaring 20's" in contrast to "Dancing Through the Decades."

With a big sha-bang Speech club brought out their winning banner, displaying each decade with musical notes and lyrics.

Then the most exciting part of the evening started — The Royalty. Nominated by the Senior Class and chosen by the whole student body were King and Queen; Joseph Gaynor and Angel Stahler.

And to top the night off with success, our Colt football team defeated the Rams in a 17-10 Victory!

Kim Smith, junior expresses her spirit — the look on her face told us it was Great!

"The Roaring 20's" as part of the act on the Senior class float; Scott Matas was the bartender, Jason Staat the "Rootbeer chugger," and Laura Lewitz was just having fun.

Telling the crowd at the assembly that Colt football would definitely "Romp" Washington, is Ragen Hunt, Senior. . . . Waiting for the crowd to chant louder, to put the pie in Mr. Gadus' face is Kathy Thompson, senior.

Junior class float participants; Julia Haak and MaryAnn Mayo.

Alumni Pom Pon Girls Patsi Dickson, Suzanne Hornbeck, and Annie Proferi, return for the excitement.

PEP CLUB

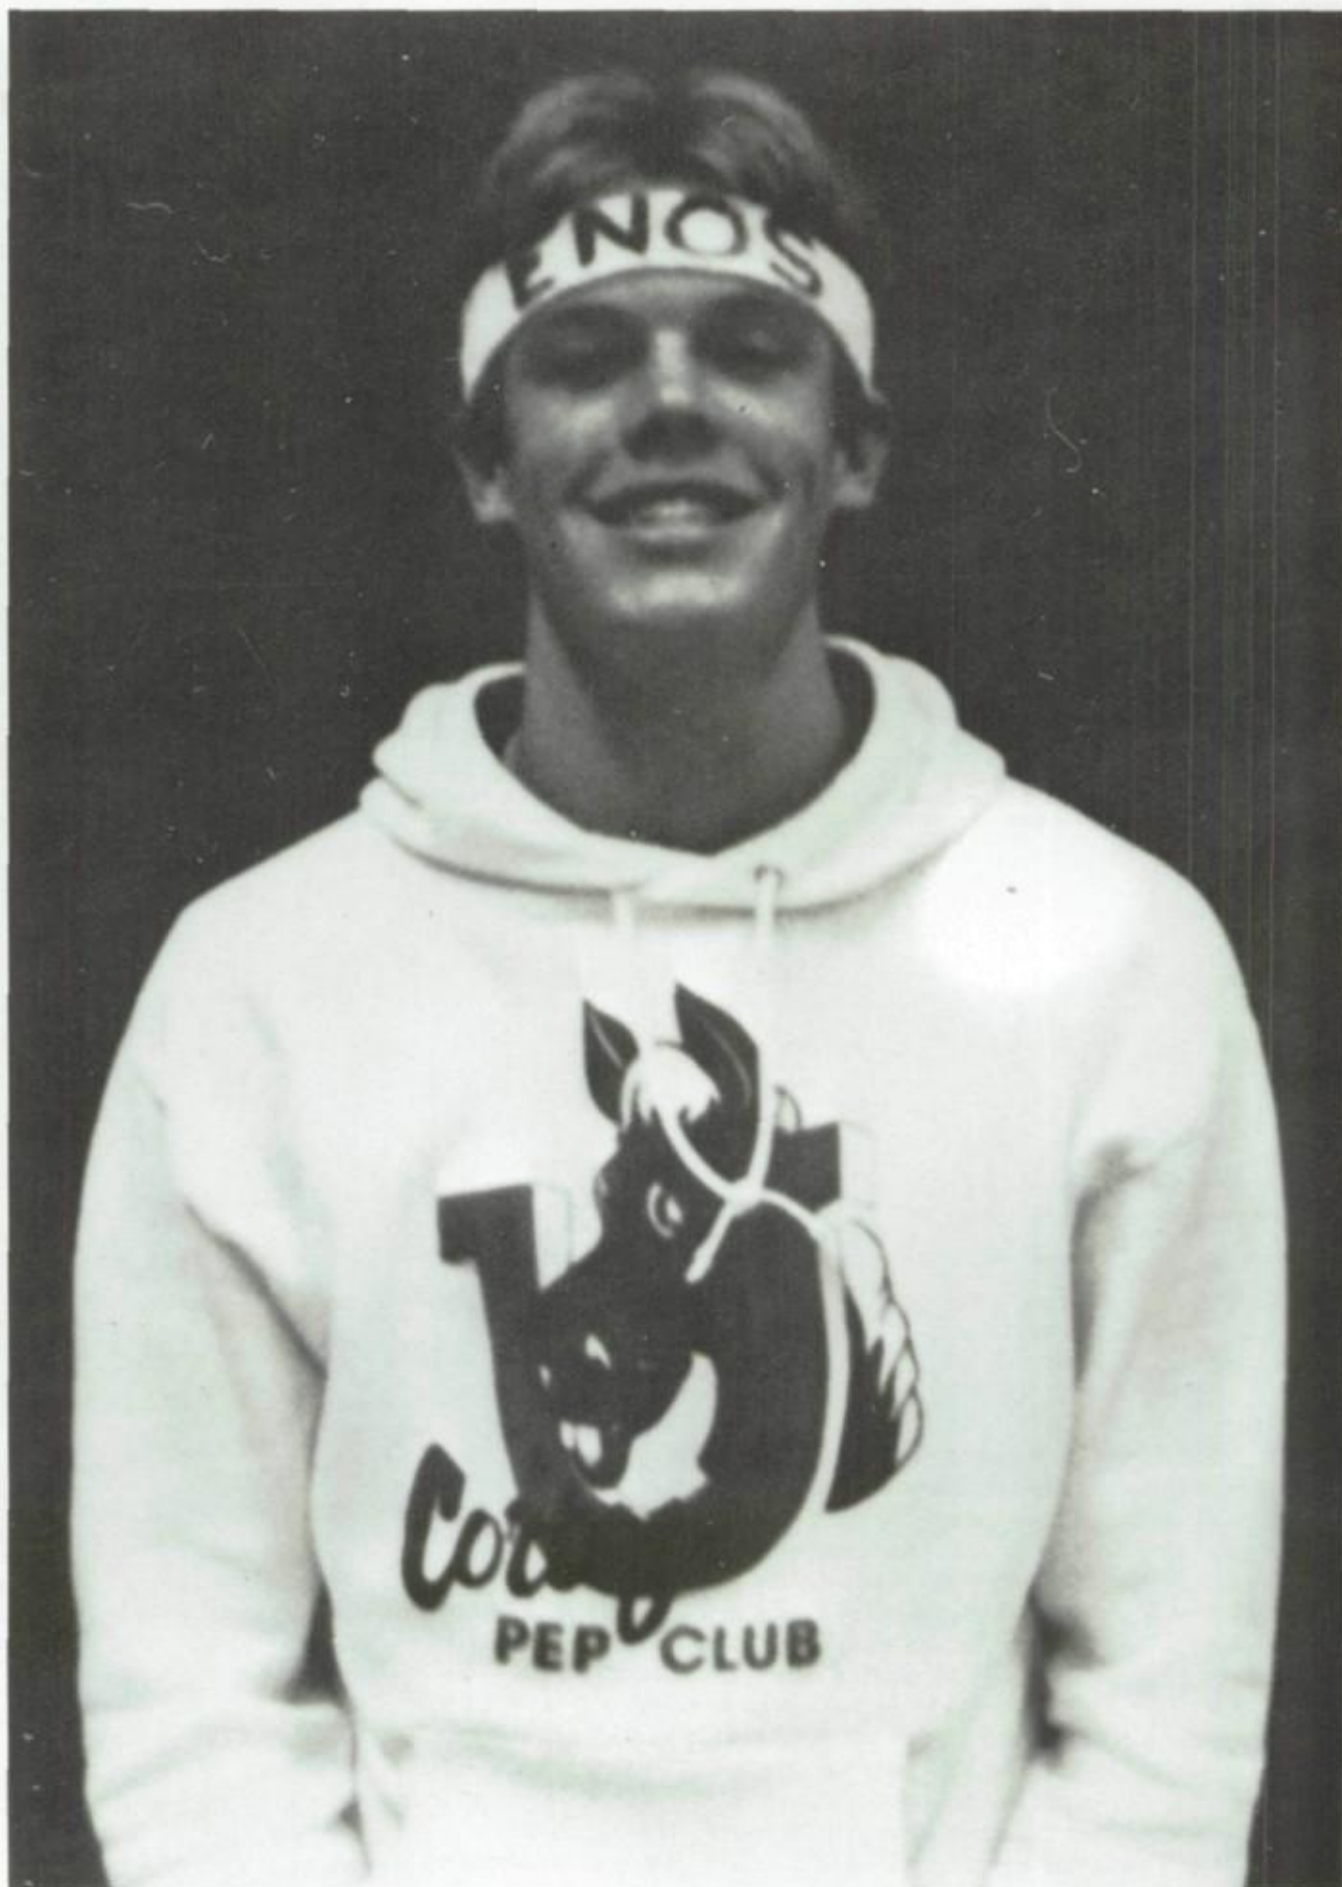

School Spirit, Togetherness, Good Times; These three ingredients mix to create one thing; The PEP CLUB. Founded on the idea that there was just not enough Spirit at School activities, the Pep Club was created by concerned students to change the attitude.

This past year has shown that the Pep Club was a smashing success. From football games to basketball games, the Pep Club was always there. "These were the best times in school spirit and they'll always get better," said Scott Matas, Senior-President.

The pep club has been inactive for more than ten years, and everyone on campus wants to get in on the spirit. Members who are juniors and sophomores this year plan on keeping the pep Club's Spirit alive into the 1986-87 school year.

This year the Pep Club sold pom-pom shakers, Cortez Colt Hand towels, and concessions at basketball games. To support school activities they all wore their "Pep Club Sweatshirts" designed by Mr. Parker. As an active club at Cortez they also participated in the Christmas fair selling Pizza and Coke. "Pep Club is great, I just wish that more people could get into the spirit," expressed Amy Bratt, junior.

Rob Lalley, junior stated, "Even though we have become a great success, we still have a long way to go. This is only the beginning." Since the pep club was restarted on campus school Spirit has definitely grown, and slowly everyone is catching the "wildfire." OUR SPIRIT IS SKY HIGH!!

EDITORIAL

Newspaper Lacks Funds

by Diane Kreitler

As editor of the school newspaper, I see every phase of the newspaper production process, but without one essential element this process can not even begin... funds.

Since 1960 students at Cortez have been paying a small fee of $1 charge of registration for one school year's subscription to The Spectator. Printing costs more than quadrupled since then but the $1 charge remains the same.

The staff tries in every way it can to raise enough money to produce at least one newspaper a month. Costs for a 6-page issue run about $600. The $1 per student currently pays for 2½ issues. The rest of the issues must be paid for by selling enough ads and having enough bagel sales to somehow raise enough money for the issues. Each year as costs go up it gets harder and harder to raise the funds. After this issue we will be out of money completely. We are again trying to get advertisers to support us, but until we raise the necessary monies for another issue or get money from some other source it looks as though this could be our last issue for some time.

The Spectator has won many national awards for the paper as a whole and for individual writers, as well as being a six-time consecutive winner of the George H. Gallup Award, the highest award given to a high school newspaper for its general excellence of news coverage and leadership. The school administration, staff and students are very supportive of our work.

It would certainly be a shame if this publication could no longer bring a spirit of togetherness to Cortez because it lacked the necessary funds that district authorities don't seem to understand we desperately need.

Within this issue, the staff would like to give its sincere thanks to all of our readers, and with your support, another issue may be possible.

Compliments of The Spectator Staff. Beside appeared in the January 31, 1986 Volume 25, no. 5

LETTER TO THE EDITOR YEARBOOK CLASS NEEDED

Dear Editor,

The yearbook as well as the newspaper is faced with a crucial dilemma. Like the newspaper, you cannot function without funds, well the yearbook may not be able to function next year without a class.

For the past four years, the yearbook staff has had to do without a class, and each year the task becomes harder and harder to do. As I and Mr. Schlenker have argued, it is almost impossible to complete the yearbook without a class, but administration still keeps it closed.

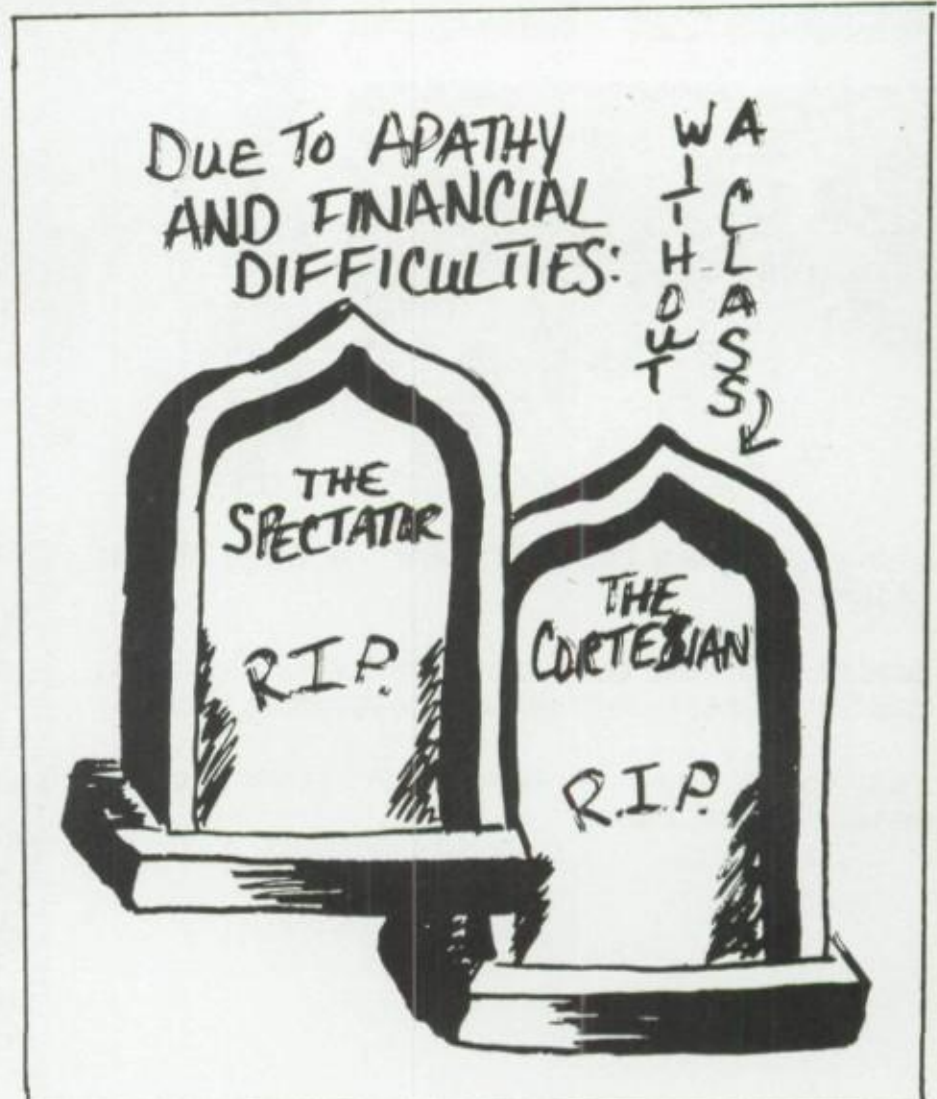

Six out of nine schools in the district have publication classes. Those schools have had successful yearbooks that have been delivered on time.

Each year the staff is told that if we have enough students for a class the class is ours. Our staff has been refused a class in '83-'84 and '84-'85.

We are only asking for a one-semester publications class, a class to finish the book. Without a class, Cortez may be without a yearbook.

I hope that this letter will show Cortez how much the yearbook needs your support. Should we be denied a class once more we could be circulating a petition to keep our Cortesian alive. Keeping the spirit of our yearbook is what we are fighting for.

Sincerely,
Veronica Lucas
Editor-In-Chief

LEARNING AND LAUGHING

Life in general, for high school students was definitely school. At least most of the time. From the time we were four we have been surrounded by school.

Many of us have changed our childhood goals of becoming a policeman, of beautician to being an electrical engineer or a doctor. Many students have already chosen where they plan to continue their education.

"I'm going to ASU, because I like it." — John Chiccarella, senior.

"I want to start at P.C. (Phoenix College) because I feel that the transition from high school to college is something I am going to need to adjust to, especially campus life." — Vannessa Eaton, senior.

"I'm going to ASU to major in Child psychology and minor in men, or vise-versa!" — Melissa Martin, senior.

"I'm going into the U.S. Marine Corps to be one of their firefighters. I want to be one of the best." — John Braun, senior.

Whatever it is that CHS students have chosen to do they plan to be the very best at it. And they all agreed the past 18 years have definitely been a learning experience.

Yearbook members: Lori Baldwin, Rita Summers, Christi Lopez, and Amy Foresberg often ate lunch TOGETHER.

MAKING STATE

For students who are more advanced than others in their classes Cortez offers accelerated courses. For freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Accelerated courses are offered in English, biology, math and Chemistry.

Seniors can participate in Advanced Placement programs, which can earn them a college credit in the above listed classes.

Besides a more challenging workload, another factor makes these unique classes special — the people involved.

I really enjoyed the students and teachers in the AP classes," said Paul Stanton, Sr.

Very often after a year of working closely TOGETHER, students and teachers find that they have more friends than they had when the year started.

"My Accelerated classes have given me an experience that I'll never forget, and in some ways they are taught just like college, so I'll be able to adjust easily." stated Eric Bramlett, sophomore.

SHARING AND CARING TOGETHER

The anticipation was present as the seniors lined up at the bus awaiting the face of the child they would spend an afternoon sharing, caring, and laughing with. At this Christmas party, seniors became little kids again at heart.

Each year the senior class sponsors a Christmas party for children that come from less fortunate families. The children receive cookies with punch and entertainment; such as Christmas carols and cartoons. They also get a chance to talk with Santa Claus who gave them each a gift. (Bubbles and a candy cane filled with candy.)

The drama club provided a Christmas skit with a message about the holiday season. This message gave the children a better understanding of what Christmas really is.

"You never see this kind of sharing among people very often. This party gave me a better understanding of what the holiday season is really about."
— Joe Gaynor, senior.

As the children boarded the bus, tears shed as brief but lifelong friends said Goodbye.

Goldwater Visits Campus Answers Teens Questions

by Eric Miceli

"I believe something is happening with teenagers in America today and it is happening for the good," said Arizona Senator Barry Goldwater who, in a mock press conference, recently spoke to approximately 400 students in the auditorium at the request of the Journalism 3-4 students.

"Teens today are very patriotic and proud to be Americans," he added.

Other topics ranged from teen problems and the space program, nuclear war and defense strategies.

Barry Goldwater began his political career in 1949 when he was elected to the Phoenix City Council. He was elected to his first term as United States Senator in 1952. He was re-elected in 1958, but did not seek re-election in 1964 because he was selected as the Republican nominee for President of the United States.

"Running for President was a big thrill," said Senator Goldwater. "I must have shaken about two million hands and met more Americans than I will ever meet again."

The most important issue Senator Goldwater spoke about was Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev's offer to eliminate nuclear weapons by the year 2000.

"As chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I would like to see both countries stop building nuclear weapons, begin destroying them, and eliminating them before the year 2000."

Senator Goldwater also had strong opinions about President Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative.

"At this point in time, it is a necessity," said Goldwater. He also believes that even with the tremendous cost of SDI, it should be built.

"Anything that will be used to protect America's freedom is never too expensive."

Commenting on the Soviet Union,

Senator Goldwater believes that from a military point of view, they are a big threat.

"At the present, the Soviets are much stronger than us from a military standpoint."

Even though the Soviets outnumber the United States in almost every aspect of modern warfare, Senator Goldwater still believes that the American fighting man is the best in the world.

"I would rather have one American fighting by my side than ten men from any other country," he said.

In more recent events, the Senator talked about the space shuttle tragedy at the American Space Program.

"It was a tragic accident, but the program must continue. What would have happened if the first man to ride in a car was killed. Would we have stopped building cars?"

"Everything we accomplished in America has had risks, but we have kept moving forward."

When speaking about terrorism, the Senator said what most of America has already said: Who are they?

"When a terrorist strikes, the first thing we say is 'Let's get 'em. Then we say 'Who do we get?'"

Goldwater believes that once we can locate the terrorists, we can get a handle on the problem, but terrorism won't end tomorrow.

Speaking of topics that are interesting to most teenagers, Senator Goldwater talked about teen jobs and school financial aide.

"I don't believe that wages should be lower just because you're known as 'teenagers.'"

The Senator also believes that financial aid to students won't end, but the laws concerning it will be tougher. "The biggest reason some people want to cut financial aid is because the students are not paying the money back."

Being different than most Republicans, the Senator believes that abortion is up to the woman.

"I believe a woman should be able to decide for herself if she wants an abortion or not. It's not only the killing of an unborn child, but more people have to think of the woman's health," said Senator Goldwater. "I can see both sides of the issue."

On the lighter side, Senator Goldwater commented on his most embarrassing moment in public office.

A very embarrassing moment took place during the Eisenhower era. I called his budget proposal a 'dime store deal.' He called me to his office and gave me holy you-know-what!"

To end on a serious note, the Senator does believe that Americans are still being held against their will in Vietnam.

"Without being able to prove it, I think they are still there."

Boy's, Girl's State Chooses Candidates

Boy's and Girl's state candidates were chosen last week. The annual Boy's State, at Northern Arizona University will be held from June 7 to June 13 and the Girl's State, at the University of Arizona will be held from June 9 to June 15.

Those boy's chosen were Brian Imboden, Michael Richardson, Eric Johnson, William Rau, and Michael Tucker, alternate. All of them were chosen by a committee of 20 teachers at Cortez.

Girl's state will represent 142 high schools in Arizona. The representatives for the girls are Melissa Boshart, Julie Caiborne, Rita Summers, and Amy Forsberg, alternate.

Boy's and Girl's State, sponsored by the American Legion, is a citizenship training program to provide a knowledge of our governmental process. They learn about our government by actually doing it. They elect their own officers, pass and veto their own bills, and organize their own laws.

Boy's/Girl's State representatives were chosen upon their abilities for leadership, activities in which they are involved, as well as school activities that they are involved in.

All of them will be living on school campuses for 6 days.

"I think it will be a rewarding experience, and I'm looking forward to seeing what the program is like" stated Erik Johnson, one of the candidates chosen to go to the Arizona Boy's State.

Behavior Unappropriate For School Speaker

by Charles Sanchez

It is a rare occasion when a national public figure speaks to students at a high school. Cortez recently played host to United States Senator, Barry Goldwater, but the apathy showed by some students was unacceptable to me as well as my other classmates who had invited the senator.

As I was watching and listening to Mr. Goldwater, I was embarrassed and appalled to see some students in the auditorium talking, eating and even sleeping during the presentation.

Apparently, those students didn't realize who was standing on that stage. They didn't realize that Goldwater is a man who makes decisions that directly affect their lives.

Although the student's behavior was unfortunate it probably wasn't the students' fault. Administration and teachers can't force a student to care, but they can prevent that student from attending such presentations.

To see Barry Goldwater speak was an honor for most of us and the administration should have treated it that way. Instead of inviting entire classes, the presentation should have been on a sign-up basis. That way only people who really wanted to be there could attend.

If by chance another speaker of Mr. Goldwater's stature happens to chose to speak at Cortez, I hope those in charge realize that some students just don't have the maturity to handle a speaker of Mr. Goldwater's importance.

PEOPLE HELPERS

National Honor Society is a nationwide, honorary organization which recognizes the achievements of outstanding high school students and brings these students to the attention of their classmates, their parents, their community, and the colleges they plan to attend.

Eligibility is open to any junior or senior who has been enrolled at Cortez high school for at least one semester and meets certain criteria based on scholarship, service to Cortez, and the community, leadership, and character.

Last year, NHS was chosen as "Club of the Year" due to the Homework helpers, peer tutoring, and many other services it gave the students and school.

"NHS students are highly motivated, recognize the need for social action, possess integrity, and are well disciplined. All projects are successful. Working with NHS has been a most rewarding experience." — Mrs. Nach, sponsor

"I really like being involved with NHS. It's a great feeling when you know you've helped students, and other people in the community. It's a lot of fun too!" — Susan Hiriohat a senior.

Anxiously counting the money NHS made at the Christmas fair is LeAnn Dumon, senior and Mrs. Nach.

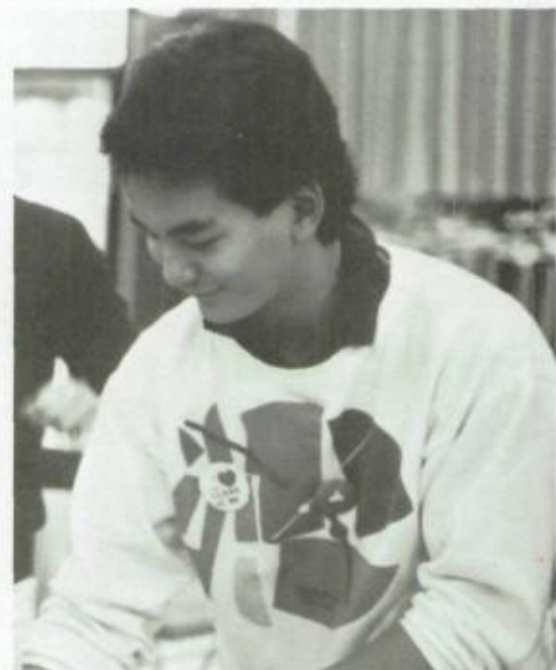

"NHS is a great club. Everyone is so friendly towards others and involved in helping the community. We really work TOGETHER to make all of our projects successful and fun." — Michele Richmond, senior.

Under the leadership of president, Mark Dodson, senior, Mrs. Nach, sponsor, NHS performed many activities. These included Christmas caroling at a nursing home. NHS also sponsored a food drive at school for less fortunate families at Thanksgiving. The club members tutored students, participated in the Holiday Fair, held a car wash, and a very successful dance.

Joe Gaynor, senior, stated, "NHS proved itself to be one of the finest and most honored organizations at Cortez."

MANY FIRSTS, FOR NEW CLASS, NEW ATTITUDE

C.O.E.'s class of 86' proved to Cortez that they were Better Than Ever. C.O.E. definitely expressed their New Attitude. Cooperative Office Education, headed by Mrs. Sharon Hoffman, is a Co-op of class, club, and On-the-job-training. The 26 members of C.O.E. earned their two credits by going to school a half day and then going to work in an office the other half.

Elected officers for this year were: Jackie Hartman — President; DeAn-na DiGiuseppe — Vice-President; Angela Mendivil — Secretary; Jeanne Fleming and Kris O'Neill — Treasurers; and Menthe Liter and Kim Rudge — Publicity Managers. For the first time C.O.E. club members chose to wear bright fuchsia blouses with black skirts as a uniform for meeting days.

Another first for C.O.E. was their Homecoming banner in which several C.O.E. members carried it around the track on Homecoming night. And to top the year off, C.O.E. held an Employer Appreciation Banquet.

"... We worked hard Together make this a well known club and bring on a New Attitude for future members ..." — DeAnn DiGiuseppe, senior.

"C.O.E. ... has spirit, excitement but most of all a chance for the future." — Stacey Smith, senior.

CORTEZ HERO MAKIN' IT BIG!

HERO — Home Economics Related Occupations, was also another class providing "Education for the future." Like C.O.E. It was a class, club, and an on-the-job training set up too. HERO put on their annual HERO Week and awarded several teachers with a teacher of the day award each day. Also during that week they held a Jelly Bean guess inside the office.

HERO members said that they were a club who just mainly wanted to have fun. They also did that when they had their balloon sale. "We just thought it would be fun for everyone on campus." — said Angel Stahler, senior.

CORTEZ HAPPY ABOUT S.A.D.D.

S.A.D.D. Sponsor, Mr. Fred Ciarico Checks His Book for Activity Attendance.

For the first year Cortez began a S.A.D.D. chapter on campus. S.A.D.D. began as an assembly, with a national S.A.D.D. representative visiting Cortez to explain what the organization was all about. After an abundance of interested students, S.A.D.D. was organized as a club.

"It's been a long time needed organization here at Cortez," said Kelli Smith, senior, president of S.A.D.D.

The club's main purpose was to let students be informed about drinking and driving and let them know they're not alone.

"S.A.D.D. is a really good organization, it lets the high school crowd be more TOGETHER," said Joe Gaynor, senior.

This year S.A.D.D. went to a convention in March to meet with other students who were against driving drunk.

"The convention was a lot of fun and it gave us the chance to meet with other students and talk about the organization," said Diane Kreidler, senior.

Cortez hopes to continue its S.A.D.D. program for years to come. The club provided a much needed outlet for students dealing with pressures concerning drinking and driving.

Kelli Smith, president said, "Considering this was our first year S.A.D.D. became very successful on and off campus."

UNITES

The Language Alliance unites the three foreign language clubs on campus; French, German, and Spanish. TOGETHER they sponsor many activities. This year they went to Nogales as a Saturday field trip, and they sponsored the Valentine's Dance. During this past school year they also held their annual potluck dinner, that included dishes from the three different cultures.

ACHIEVEMENT ABOVE ALL

"The SHS (Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica/Spanish Honor Society) is small but we are quality," said Mark Dodson, senior, president.

The purpose of the SHH is to recognize high achievement in the study of Spanish and to encourage students to become proficient in it.

Tamales are sold to raise funds for its two community service projects: providing an education for an adopted child in Chile, and for scholarships.

"The SHH takes great pride in itself and its achievements," said Bill Coykendall, senior.

All students are encouraged to work towards being in this club. Three semesters of ones (1's) are required for induction as well as an overall average of a one minus (1) in good citizenship.

THE SPANISH CLUB

Students in the Spanish Club learn about the Spanish speaking people with activities that are separate from the classroom situation.

They go to Nogales every other year, sell pretzels one Monday of each month, hold a pot luck dinner with a pinata, make banners for Homecoming, and have movies or videos after school with popcorn.

Any student studying spanish may join the Spanish Club. "Being in the Spanish Club hepled me get chosen for the ASU/Revlon Career Options in Business Program. Speaking spanish to me is really neat," said Veronica Lucas, senior.

We Had a Very Fun and Involved Year

THE FRENCH CLUB

Le Cerle Francias Est Fantastica! — We had a very fun and involved year. Our pretzel sales every third Monday proved to be a good fund raiser. They participated in Homecoming by making a Good Luck Banner. At the Holiday Fair they sold the usual Red and Green balloons with mistletoe. Later on during the year, the French film "Diva" was shown to anyone interested. The club enjoyed a full course dinner at the French Restaurant, Chez Lui. "We accomplished much more this year than we ever have." said Missy Crandal, junior.

"T he French club was a lot of fun and we had a lot more involvement as a club on campus this year."

LOTS OF GERMAN

GERMAN CLUB: Front: Stanley Tiedens, Kathy Hallock, Lori Swafford, Christine Glasenapp, Sandy Stengel. Top: Apryl Brinegar, Rachel Leyva, Elizabeth Cook, Becky Gentry, and Tianne Kurn.

Beginning in the fall, the elected officers of the German Club planned out a brilliant year. This year included an October Fest, Candy Sales, weeple sales, and a scholarship contest.

Officers of the club included Elizabeth Cook, President; Rachel Leyva, Vice President; Apryl Brinegar, treasurer; Wendy Holcom, secretary; Stanley Tiedens, publicity manager.

Senior Stanley Tiedens and junior Liz Cook were the recipients of the scholarship to travel throughout Germany. Over $1,500.00 was awarded.

German club proved to be a club well worth being a part of, and they made Cortez Better Than Ever.

Y.S.A. is not a club that many students on campus know about. Y.S.A. — Young Scientists of America is a club designed to motivate those students who are interested in including science in their future careers.

Y.S.A. under the leadership of Mrs. Peggy Howerton, sponsor and Stan Tiedens, senior accomplished many things this year. On Labor Day they planted a tree on campus, they are the adoptive parents of a red-breasted Toucan at the Phoenix Zoo, they contributed $50 to N.H.S. to sponsor unfortunate families at Thanksgiving, had a very successful candy sale and planned to attend the Arizona/Nevada Heart Seminar, sponsored by the Heart Association.

Y.S.A. has a total of 12 members this year, they hope to acquire more members next year. They have proved to Cortez to be a club well worth joining, because they provided more than just fun, they provided an insight to the future of science as well.

This year the chess team accomplished a lot. They returned from last year's team, as well as the J.V. tops. (Richard Perez, jr; Bob Hosler; Larry Sanchez, jr; Ben Tang, jr; Darren Mealio, a transfer from Page High School helped provide some much needed competition within the club as did freshman; Andy Landmeier, Ibrar Khokkar, and Thomas Perez.

Their first tournament of the year was at Cocoino High School where they took second place. The second tourney of the year was at Trevor Browne H.S. where they took another 1st — perhaps their biggest accomplishment winning the region with a 13-0 record. The team overall tied for second in the state championships. Richard Perez made 1st team all-region and was the most improved. Larry Sanchez made 2nd team all-region.

CHIRICAHUA CHALLENGERS

Cheery — what? Even if you can't pronounce our name, we don't mind. Just remember it's the hiking club at Cortez. Anyone who likes mild outdoor exercise and beautiful scenery is welcome to join.

We have one-day hikers of five to eight miles each month. Twice a year we have overnight trips that are sometimes backpacks. Where we go is a matter voted on by the members. Share with us your favorite spots in our beautiful state!

Imagine there are miners still working the mines in the ghost towns that are our favorite haunts. We have snow hikes and fall-color hikes and swimming hikes. We scale high peaks and walk up famous canyons. As Matt Stewart, Club President puts it, "Imagine eating your lunch next to a bubbling stream while viewing brilliantly colored autumn leaves and you'll have a small idea of what our October hike to Horten spring was like . . ."

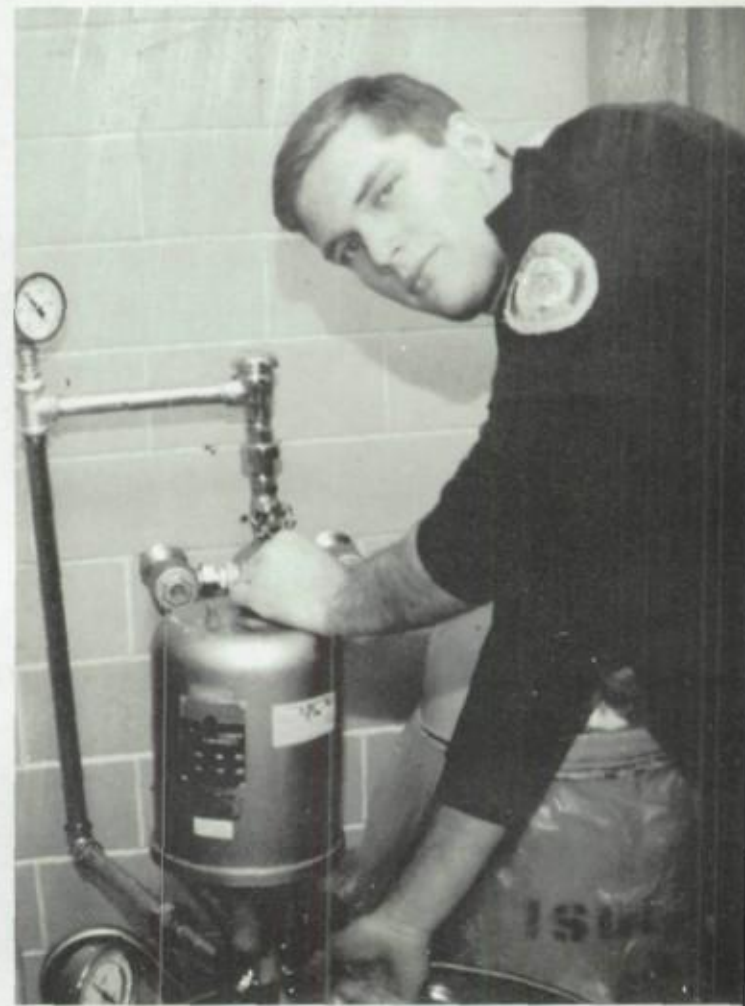

Rick Stewart, Freshman, says "I like the club because we sometimes visit old mines and ghost towns and learn something about Arizona's past."

Mrs. Sue Cash, club sponser, answers questions about the plants, rocks and critters found along the trails. Mr. Cash, co-sponser, helps by giving photography lessons. Highlights of every trip are cookies made by "Mrs. C" and the junk food stops along the way to and from our hiking spot.

This is the tenth year for the club. "While we have favorite places like West Fork of Oak Creek and Geronimo's Cave in the Superstition Mountains, we are always discovering new places and are hoping you will want to join in helping us find the most beautiful spot in the state," says Mr. Cash.

H.O.E. CARES

H.O.E. (Health Occupation Education) is a program within Cortez that works with the V.A. Medical Center. H.O.E. helps the student work directly with American Veterans in today's society and medicine. This program is geared to those students working towards some kind of medical career.

BAND PULLS TOGETHER

On October 9, 1985, in Tucson AZ, the Cortez Band participated in the U of A Band Day. They were given an overall rating of a 3/Good. They were given the same grade at ASU Band Day and they received an Excellent at State.

While most Cortez students were still asleep, the Cortez marching band was hard at work. (Many nearby residents can testify to this) Practice season for the marching band began in the summer and continued through Nov.

Although practice meant long, early hours of monotonous drills, "I never really knew how much work went into a show, but it was rewarding and I had a lot of fun," said Jenny O'Neill, fr. This year the band participated in a parade, both ASU and U of A Band days, and finished off the year with a rating of excellent at State Competition.

"Being Drum Major was an exciting experience, but I am proud of how the band pulled TOGETHER this year," said Kristi Johnson, Sr. When they weren't marching they were out working car washes, selling raffle tickets, fruit cakes, and taking inventory. All this was done in order to attend events in California this year. All of the hard work & determination paid off for the band. "This year was very exciting and I am looking forward to next year's Marching season," said Ms. Betsy Tucker, Director.

Singing together helped the chorus line to help each other with their work.

Junior Lisa Savoka plays the piano for chorus as well as sings in it.

Speech is a class that helps some students break out of their shell and look towards the future of having a Speech Team background. Chris Culligan, sophomore speaks optimistically.

Speech team officers are: Charles Sanchez — president; Peggy Wilkins — treasurer; Lisa Savoki — secretary; and Bob Strathota — publicity Mgr.

Speech teams compete in many areas. Duo-acting is a very popular event within tournaments. Bob Strahota, senior and Liz Scott, junior, quickly eliminate their competition at tournaments.

SPEECH CLUB

TAKE A LOOK AT THEM NOW!

The Speech team grew in size and reputation during its second year. Speech involves a great deal of dramatics as well as composure and proper articulation. The team attended tournaments regularly, about once a month, and engaged in other forensic related activities. With their sponsor Diane Bykowski, students could work on improving their skills in front of an audience. The team nearly doubled in size and gradually increased the number of participants in tournament competitions which made for a lucrative and fun year.

CLOSE-UP

A MONUMENTAL EXPERIENCE

What is Close-Up? CLOse up is a week long trip in Washington D.C. designed to help students learn more about our Government.

During the week of March 23-29 students from Arizona, Michigan, Rhode Island, Tennessee, and Texas experienced this great opportunity.

Arizona participants included: Cortez, Glendale, Greenway, Moon Valley, Sunnyslope, Washington, Lake Havasu City, and Administration Education. A total of three students from Cortez attended; Joel Kersenbrock and Rob Lalley, juniors, and Veronica Lucas, senior. Senior Government teacher, Mr. Ted Carman (Andy Taylor) attended as the Cortez sponsor.

The students activities included: Discussion workshops, Bus Tours, Seminars, and Monument and Memorial Visits. The students were given the opportunity to see the House, Senate, and Supreme Court in action. They visited many government buildings and offices. Many students were given the opportunity to speak with their own state's Representatives and Senators. And if their Congressmen were not available there was usually a helpful staff or press secretary there to answer any/all of their questions. "I thought Congressman, Morris Udall was pretty fortunate to have Mr. Mark James as his Press Secretary. The welcome, visit, and farewell was great. Mr. James really knew what he was talking about." said Joel Kersenbrock, junior.

The White House, LaFayette Park, The Capitol, The Washington Monument, The Vietnam Veterans

Memorial, The Arlington Cemetery, and the Library of Congress were at the tops of their lists.

"The Capitol was unreal, everything in it was gorgeous!" exclaimed Veronica Lucas, senior. "But, I think the one thing in Washington that really touched me was the Vietnam Memorial." "Washington is really a beautiful place. In fact, I would definitely go next year if asked," stated Mr. Carman, sponsor.

Workshops and seminars brought up many issues. Issues to consider and debate. Federal Drug Testing, The Homeless, Our Defense, Abortion, Legalizing Marijuana, AIDS, Students in School, Drunk Driving, Contra-Aid, Libya, Terrorism, and Protesting were just some of the issues discussed.

"In one of the workshops we talked about prejudices. Everyone expressed what they felt and thought about different particular/nationalities. By the end of our workshop we discovered our ideas were pretty much the same, even if we were all different races," stated Joel Kersenbrock, junior. "The workshop on prejudice really brought us TOGETHER, and as a joke we called it 'Bigots Anonymous' expressed Veronica.

Well, Cortez. Quit complaining! School food is actually gourmet along with airplane food compared to hotel food. Students complained that the food served to them was unfit to feed their dogs with. "If it weren't for Dominoes Pizza to the rescue, we might have starved." retorted Rob Lalley, junior.

Runny, bouncy, sticky, rubbery food was common for the hotel we stayed in. It was really gross," stated Joel. "The food wasn't that bad, of course we only ate there half the time." stated Mr. Carman.

One thing this year about Close-Up is that for the G.U.H.S.D. students were not allowed to miss school for this trip. The time spent for this trip was taken during Spring Break. "It was the best Spring Break I've ever spent! And if I didn't go to Washington, I would have had to work." said Rob. For many students outside the state the case was the same. But many students who sacrificed their Spring Break to go to Close-Up agreed that they wouldn't have traded this experience for anything in the world.

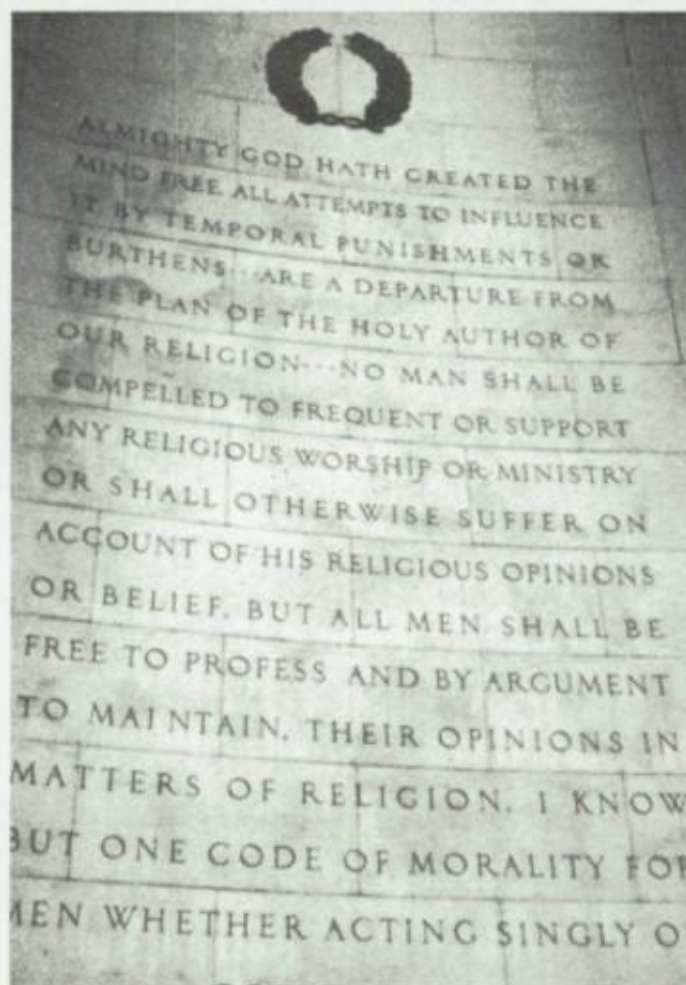

"Close-Up brought me closer to what our government's real purpose is, and it also gave me friends and memories that will be with me forever," stated Veronica.

Close-Up proved to be a trip worth taking. It taught the students how to take different viewpoints on issues, it taught them what our government is really like, it showed them that our country is one in which we have the freedom to do whatever we want, but most of all it brought students from different parts of the country TOGETHER to SHARE the experience that Close-Up brings. The young of our country are the future, and with Close-Up it helps make the 'Unreal' real.

QUILL AND SCROLL

"Despite our lack of funds, the staff worked very hard to keep producing The Spectator," said Senior Diane Kreitler, Editor of The Spectator.

The Gallup Award winning staff produced eight issues for the 1985-86 year as well as parent newsletters, a calendar and a literary magazine.

Eleven members of the Spectator staff were also members of International Quill and Scroll which is an honorary organization for outstanding high school journalist. The members included Chris Bacon, Lora Beres, Jennifer Gorman, and Eric Miceli, sophomores; Kristen Allen, Eric Johnson, and Kelley Vangundy, juniors; Diane Kreitler, Stephanie Mull, Lisa Plinski, and Charles Sanchez, seniors.

"I believe that we have an excellent paper and I hope that we continue to win awards." concluded Mrs. Sandy Finerman, Journalist sponsor and instructor.

DOES FIELD WORK

Chain Gang captain, Aimee Caulk, senior, races against time in an exciting Colt assembly.

No, the Chain Gang is not a group just out of jail. The Chain Gang is a club of girls who "Follow the team to give them support." They help with game set-ups at home games. Their main job was to mark downs and run the chains at home games.

On away games they follow the team for support. This year the Chain Gang sponsored a very successful dance, a Weight training clinic to motivate athletes next year, a Lift-a-thon, and a Jog-a-thon to help support the football players.

Next year they hope to get Chain Gang members more motivated, but the club this year was actually very successful. "Better Than Ever."

Spurs are an important part of Colt Wrestling. They attended and worked all matches and tournaments. Each spur was given one or two wrestlers for secret pals. These girls gave their secret pals (wrestlers) encouragement signs, gatorade at matches, and little pep gifts. This year the spurs and wrestlers climbed Squaw Peak, has a pizza party and an awards banquet.

Some spurs knew more about wrestling than the wrestlers themselves. This year the spurs started a chant line, which consisted of approximately eight girls. These girls scored, timed, and were the top spurs of the group. They hope that the chant line will continue on into the following years with a total of 12 or 16 by next years first match.

The wrestlers were very glad to have the spurs there helping them out. A lot of times wrestling became an effort that needed both the strength and the knowledge. TOGETHER that's what the spurs accomplished.

and Jennigfer Marble, frosh.

Posing in outfit are the new first year Chant Line. In order to become a Chant Line member the girls were required to pass a wrestling knowledge test.

Baseball, like wrestling, football, and basketball also had their own special supporters. The FILLIES. The fillies' responsibilities were to keep score, run the scoreboard, sell confections (pop and candy) at baseball games, and give the three teams support from the bleachers. Another thing the Fillies helped out with this year in fund raising was selling See's Candy Suckers. In selling them they also got the baseball players to sell them also, which made their sale a big success. The money that the Fillies helped raise this year went towards team support and special awards/presentations at their banquet. A lot of what the Fillies did this year was team support. "Supporting the baseball players this year was really a lot of fun," said Kris Dryfouht, sophomore and president.

The Varsity Football team ended up with a four win, six loss season. The record didn't look good but many players received the honor of being named as an All-Division Team Member. Ragen Hunt, senior was honored with the position of line-backer on the All-State second team.

Many of the players had mixed feelings about the season. Chuck Sewell, senior, stated; "We did better than expected. We had a lot of young players, so we should do better next year."

Many of the players agreed with Ragen Hunt who stated; "We had high hopes in the beginning, but it turned out to be a disappointing season. Lon White, senior, said; "We had some of the best players I've seen in a while but, we just couldn't play as a team."

TALENT WAS HIDDEN

Most people thought the J.V. team would be great this year, coming from an undefeated freshman team, but, as stated by Coach Eastin; "This was an experimental season for the J.V. football team." The team consisted of all sophomores, because of this the coaches weren't surprised at the three win and five loss season.

The freshman football team had the same three and five record as the J.V.

team. Their record didn't show the talent they had.

"We had a lot of talent but when it came to games, we didn't put everything into it," said Cesar Gonzales, freshman.

"Winning our first game was great, but it was too bad our record didn't show how much talent we had." — Darrel Yakesh, freshman.

VOLLEYBALL BRINGS TOGETHERNESS

The Girls' J.V. volleyball team had a winning and rewarding season. Their record was 12 WINS, 4 losses.

"We had a great coach and a great team. I had a lot of fun playing volleyball this year. Everyone got along and played well TOGETHER," according to Julie Claiborne, junior.

Marti Checketts, sophomore, stated, "This year was really fun and we worked as a team and accomplished a lot."

The freshman volleyball team started their season slow but finished with a bang. "The beginning of our season wasn't that good, but we learned a lot along the way, making a great finish," said Jenny O'Neill, freshman.

"I think we had a pretty good season, but our team was a lot better then we played at our games. We proved it by beating the undefeated Prescott Badgers at our final game. It was great ending the season by working TOGETHER as a team!" said Enrica Bertoldo, freshman.

SPIRITLINE!!

"I like to work for the people, it's fun. But it's hard to be there at 6:00 a.m., but I feel we've all become closer!" —Beth Quaing, junior

This year's wonderful Spiritline has become a huge success! Twelve hardworking, early rising, school spirit spreaders have really changed the look of our campus. Amy Bratt, junior, said, "I like doing both Pom and Cheer together as a Spiritline, but there's a lot more work than just dealing with one line!"

These girls have a new sponsor — Miss Kay — it's like a complete new start. RAH, RAH, RAH!! — for these twelve who are at school at 6:00 a.m., four days a week! They are a completely Together and closer group, they hope to build a lot of spirit on campus in the years to come. So far, they've done a great job, Don't you think so?

"Spiritline takes a lot of work and I think it will work out in the end, but I do wish it were back to Pom and Cheer," said Cathy Hart, junior. Ooh la la! Rah, Rah, Rah! There were 8 new J.V. Spiritline members for the 85-86 season. These girls have put a lot of hard work into it! "I like being in Spiritline this year because you get to Pom and Cheer instead of just one or the other," — Sue Richardson, Sophomore. These girls have shown Cortez they are a ROWDY bunch and they're Havin' Fun. Michelle Stewart stated; "I really like being on the Spiritline because I have met a lot of new people who are fun to work with!" For only being J.V. these girls have proven to be Varsity Material!!

KEEPING THE PACE

Keeping the Pace is probably the best title for the boys' cross-country team. For the past three years they have managed to stay in the top ten in our district and top 20 state.

The boys ran 4 to 9 miles daily and 1 to 2, before meet days. They also held one speed workout per week. Short term goals were a lot of what Coach Obye used. "Short term goals seemed to work a lot better than long term ones," stated Coach Doug Obye.

Glendale seemed to be their toughest competition, in fact the two teams started a small rivalry trying to outrun each other.

The team qualified for state at divisionals, and concluded with a 15 place win. Andy Dezember was the Skyline Division AAA-2 Cross-Country Champion. He was also selected 1st team all state.

"Andy Dezember and Dave Hoskings lead a strong team effort through the season." — Coach Obye.

With 9 wins, 9 losses the Colts broke even. They expect to do even better next year.

DEDICATION, PRIDE MAKES GIRLS' CROSS-COUNTRY BETTER THAN EVER

Hardwork, Dedication and Pride are the best words used to describe this year's Girls' Cross-Country Team.

After coming off some very disappointing season in the past few years the program was on a downslide. Things didn't look so good for this year's team, but everything changed when Coach Bill Edwards took over the program. Coach Edwards brought in a

Many pre-meet warm-ups gave Andy Dezember, junior, confidence.

"New Attitude" of "Success," that made the girls believe in themselves.

Optional practices began at the end of July, they began putting lots of mileage on lifting weights. The girls put in 5 to 8 quality miles per day. They ran hills at least twice a week, for two or three hours. Many times the girls got home after dark from runs at Thunderbird Park.

All of their practices were hard and intense. Time trial and distance goals were often rerun until the goal was reached. Team captain, Rachelle Treadwell, senior, said, "The hard practices and goals brought the team TOGETHER, we were like one big family."

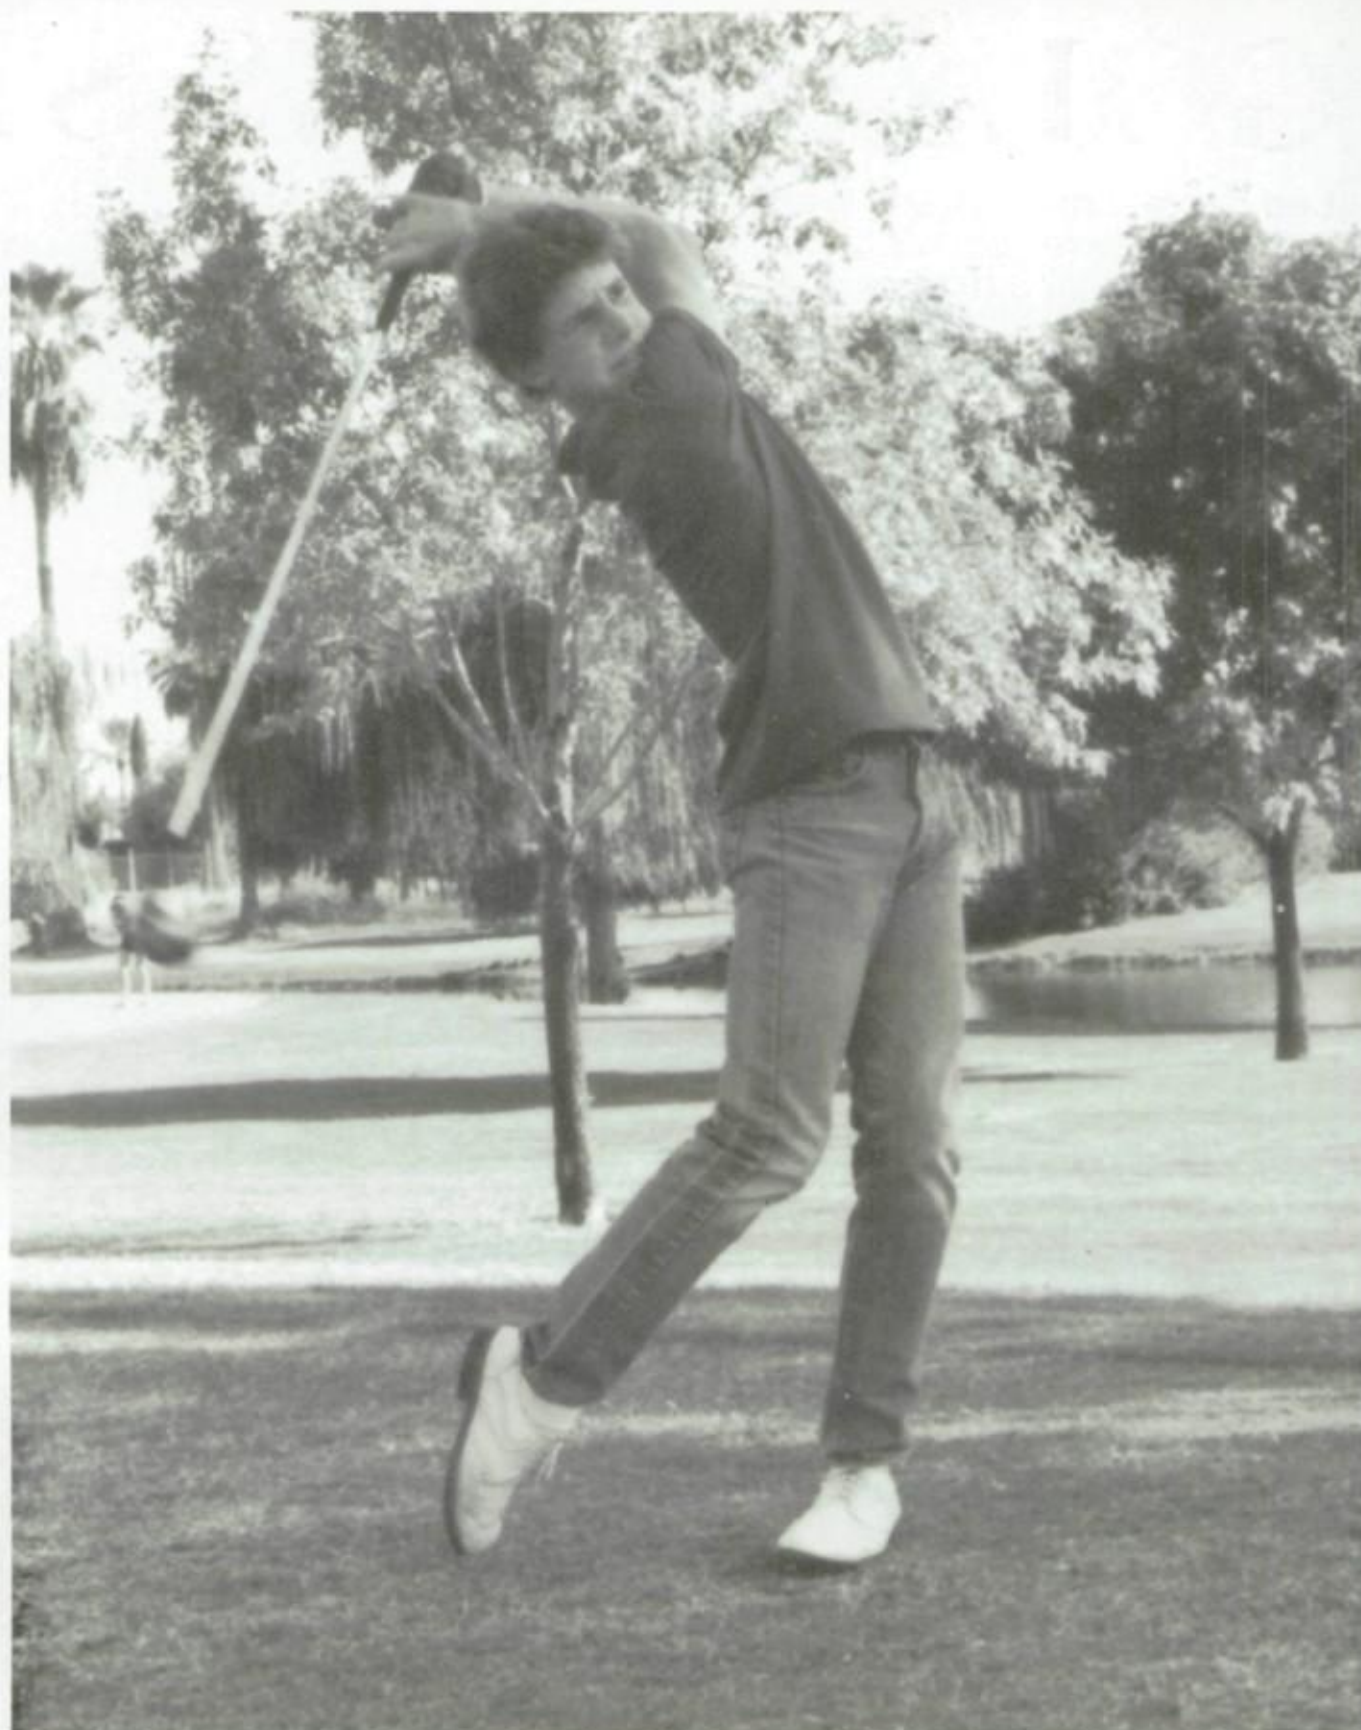

The team consisted of seven girls. Running positions on the team were #1, Sylvia Aiton — freshman; #2, Rachelle Treadwell — senior; #3, Daylena Wagenfehr — sophomore; #4, Sara Rettinger — senior; #5, Stormi Nash — junior. Other runners injured during the season were Tina Peterson, sophomore, and Angela Ania, freshman. The girls finished their outstanding season with a 15-WIN, 5-loss record. "We surprised a lot of teams who expected us be to like last year, but by the end of the season they all respected us." — Rachelle Treadwell, senior.

This past season taught the girls more than just how to run, it taught them selconfidence. Believing in success. They Fired Up-Never Gave Up-Never Gave In. Coach Bill Edwards quoted, "The will to WIN comes from within, and that carried us on to success."

Pushing the pace is Sylvia Aiton, freshman.

GOLF SWINGS STRONG

Led by freshman varsity team member Ty Powell and Jr. varsity team member Jim Baker, the 1985 varsity team placed fourth in divisionals and seventh at state. The highlight of divisions was Ty Powell who captured first place, leading the Colts into its first state playoffs in the history of the school. Ty Powell's fourth place finish and Jim Baker's eighth place finish at state led the team to a surprising seventh place finish. Coach Doug Schlenker was very pleased with the way all the members of the team played and improved throughout the year, and said, his team's strong point was their age. "We're very young and we'll be around for a while. We've only lost two seniors. Next year we hope to be one of the top three teams in the state."

Swimming is a sport that requires endurance and determination. The boys' swimming team had a fairly good season this year, coming out 4-8.

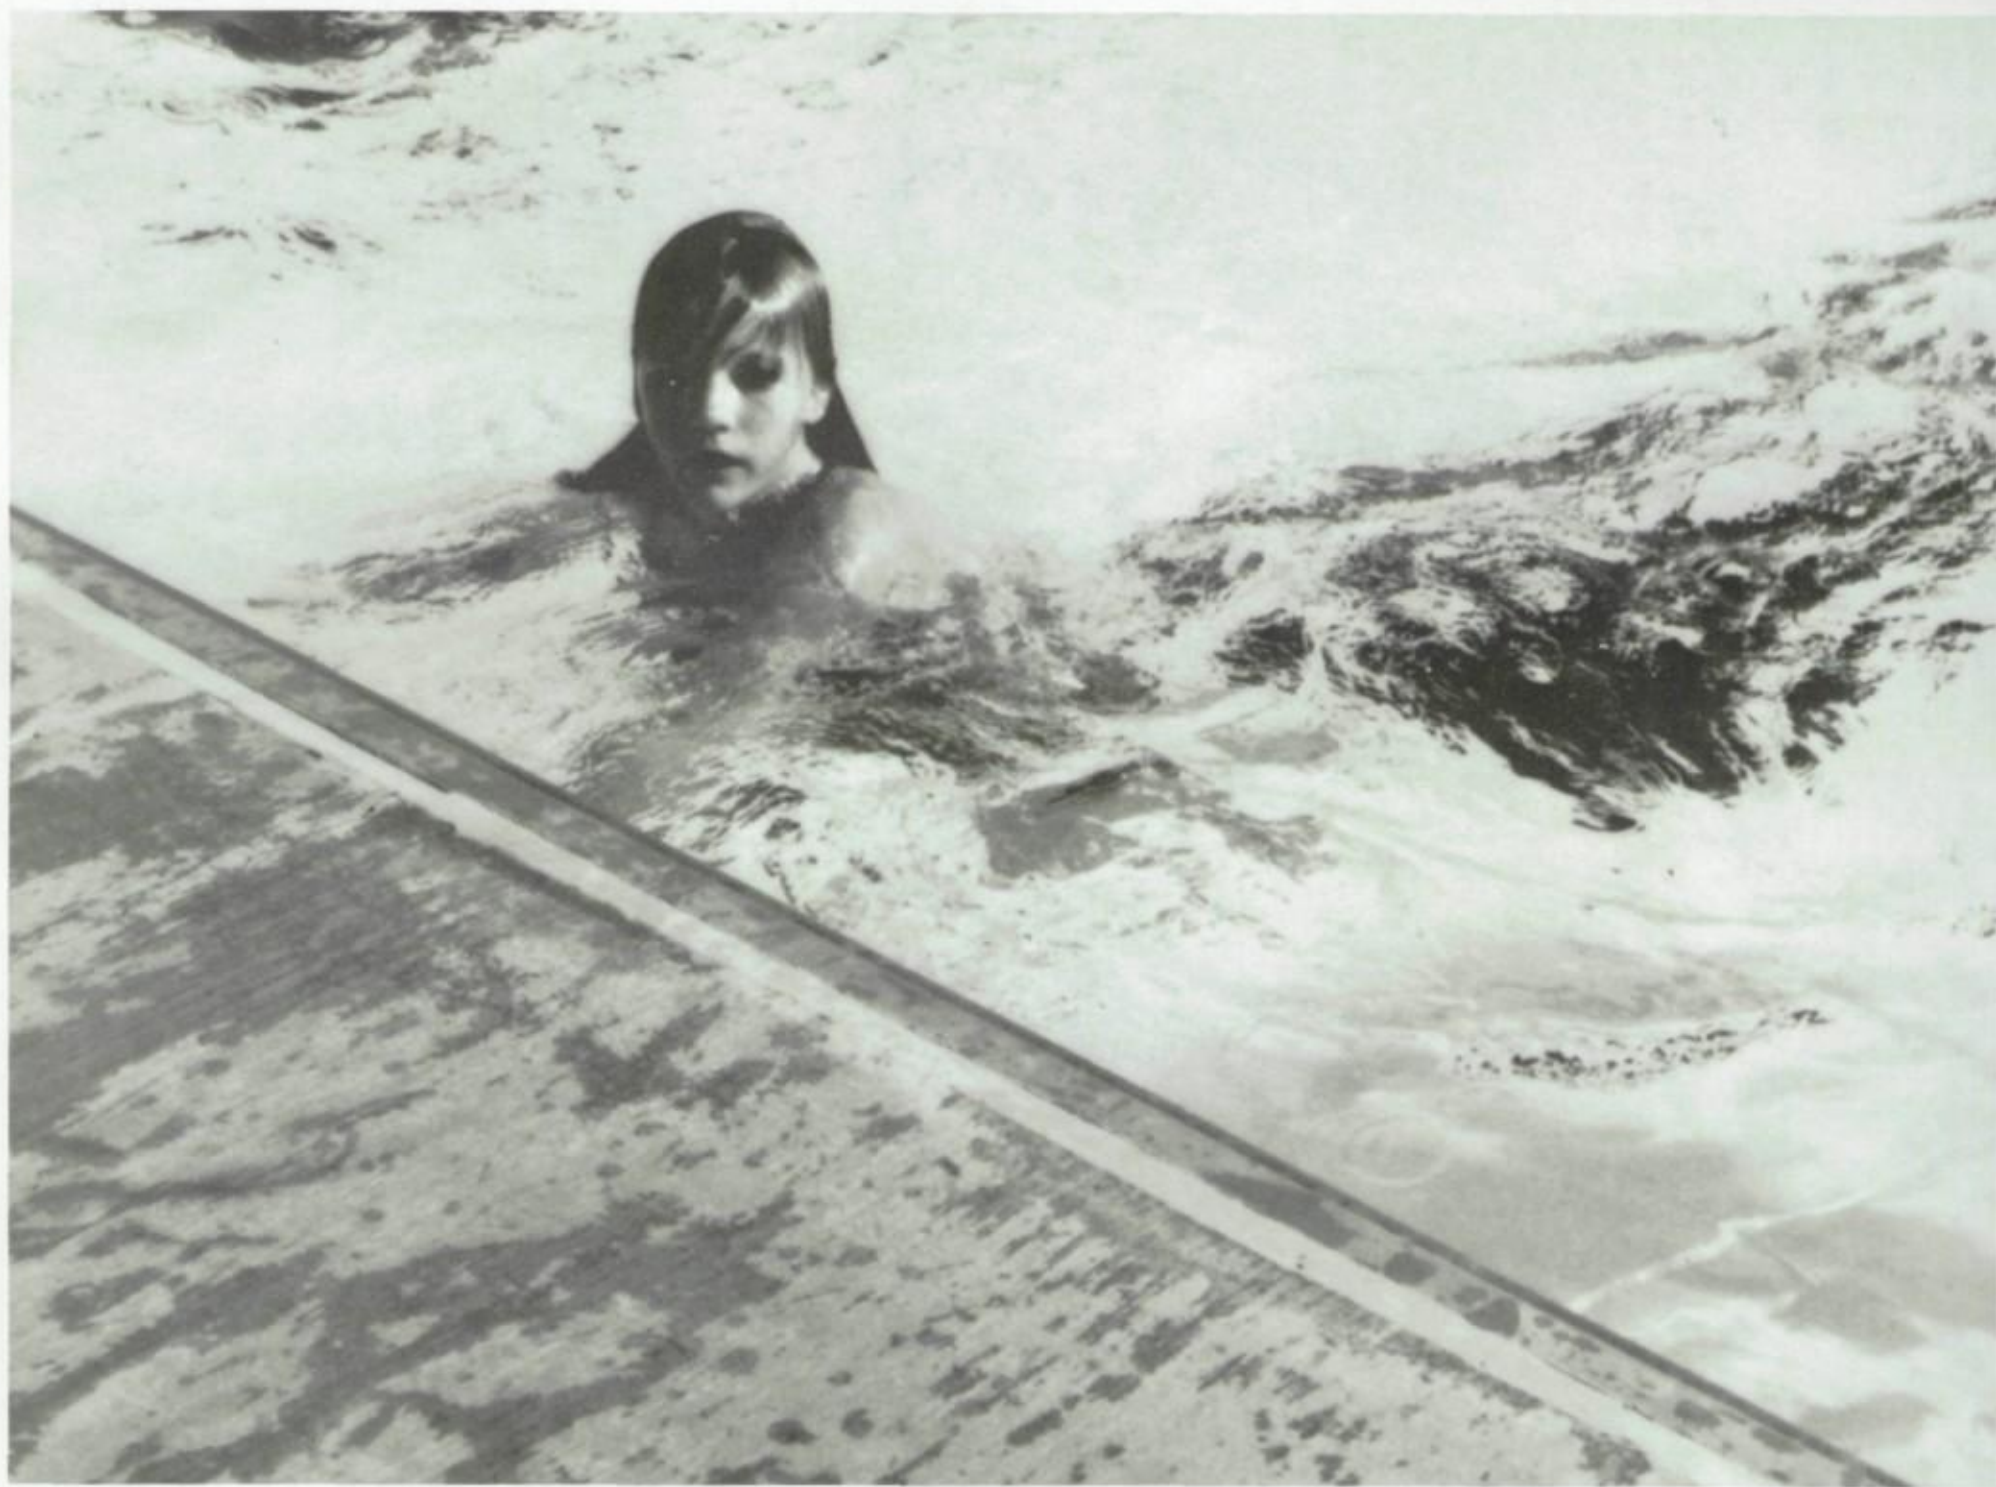

The team had a lot of fun as well as worked hard. Mike Tucker, junior said, "This was one crazy team. We had a lot of laughs while we worked hard."

Coach McGrath contributed to the success and advancement of the team by coaching each individual member and giving everyone a chance to swim in the meets. Mike Tucker also quoted, "The whole team worked hard, and it showed."

This year was successful for the team, they doubled the number of wins from last year and had many swimmers qualify for divisionals.

"Everyone got a chance to swim, and we all had a great time," said Sharon Burgdolt, 2nd year senior letterman.

To top it all off, Heather Eastin, senior, took first in divisionals and, most important, the state championship in diving. She has worked toward this goal for approximately 12 years.

All in all the girls' swim team definitely let Cortez and every school in the district know that we were "Better Than Ever!"

DEDICATION

Makes the Team

BADMINTON, like tennis and racquetball are one of the more competitive yet fun racquet sports to play. This year, all the girls on the team had a fun season with a record of 3 wins, 7 losses.

"As a team we did well. We worked TOGETHER to do our best at every game. We do hope to do better next year though," — Andrea McFeeters, junior.

One of the tougher teams they played was Prescott. Prescott was the #1 team in the state, but the girls put in a lot of practice. Although they didn't come out as well as they wanted, the girls as usual, had a good time. All in all the season was fun and maybe next year more girls will come out and make it better. "Better Than Ever."

BAD REFFING HURTS TEAM BUT C.H.S. SOCCER KEPT ON PLAYING

Experience within the soccer team is improving. Their record showed it with 7 WINS, 5 losses. This year's soccer team was lead by Coach Howard Mackey. He proved to be a coach well liked by all of the players.

"I thought the sportsmanship on our team this year was better than last year's, but the referees should study their rulebooks, and aquire quality glasses before stepping on the field." — Shawn Krill, senior.

One thing the players liked about their coach was that he stood up for the team when there was an unjust call.

There was an area which Cortez soccer has had to face before having a girl on the team. At first the players felt that Vicki Dimas, sophomore, wasn't good enough to be on the team, but then she had the skills and could handle the roughness.

Greenway seemed to be their toughest competition. Although they lost, the team stated a lot of the refereeing was not clearly called.

"We had a strong team, but I'm surprised we didn't go to divisionals." — Shawn Krill, sr.

The team should be even better next year because they are only losing three seniors.

"The sunnyslope game proved our team to have real TOGETHERNESS, because we needed to beat them. It was a whole team effort and no one gave in." — Bus Bustamante, senior.

C.H.S. FEMALE MAKES SOCCER TEAM

Every student has a favorite high school year, whether it be the sophomore, junior, or senior year. But this year, without a doubt, will stand out for sophomore Vicki Dimas. She is the only female on the Cortez soccer team.

She was doubtful to try-out at first, but then she decided she was going to go full force and not only do something she could be proud of, but also set an example for other girls who are anxious to even try out for an all-boy sport.

"I feel very fortunate to have made the team," she said. Not only did I gain more skills in soccer, but I gained some really good friends."

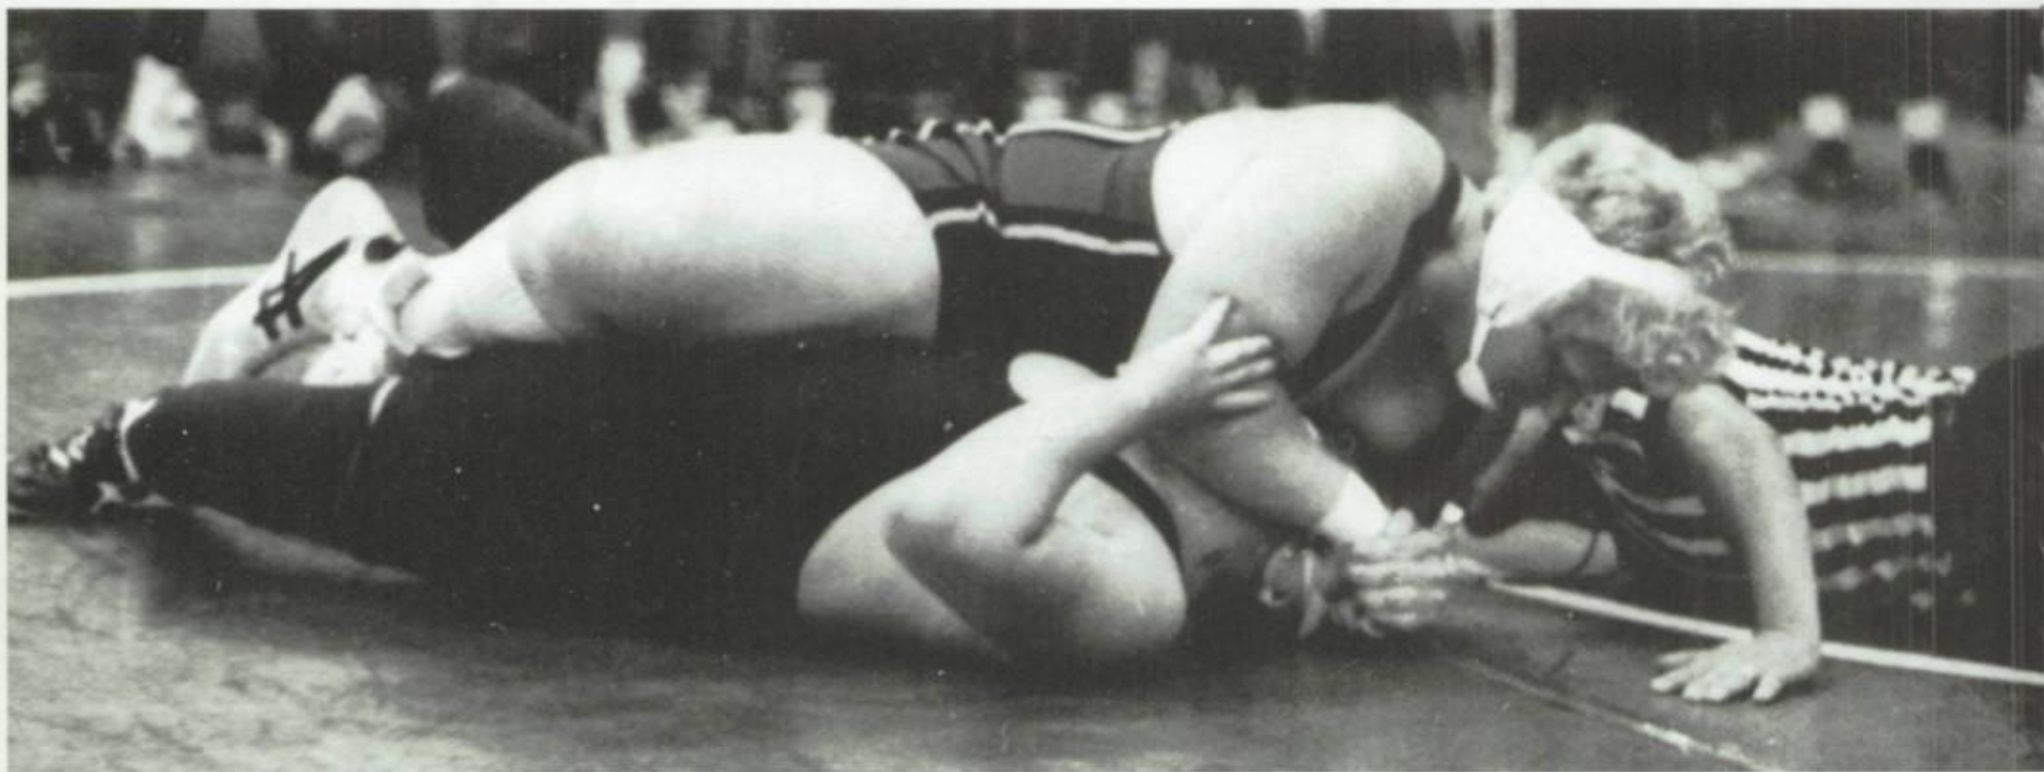

Vickie stands only 4 foot 11 inches and sometimes finds that keeping up with the guys isn't as easy as it seems.

"There are some like things that are like really complicated for a girl — like chest strapping. It's so embarrassing!" she laughs.

Vickie encourages other girls to go out for any sport — whether it be all guys or girls — but be willing to give it all you've got.

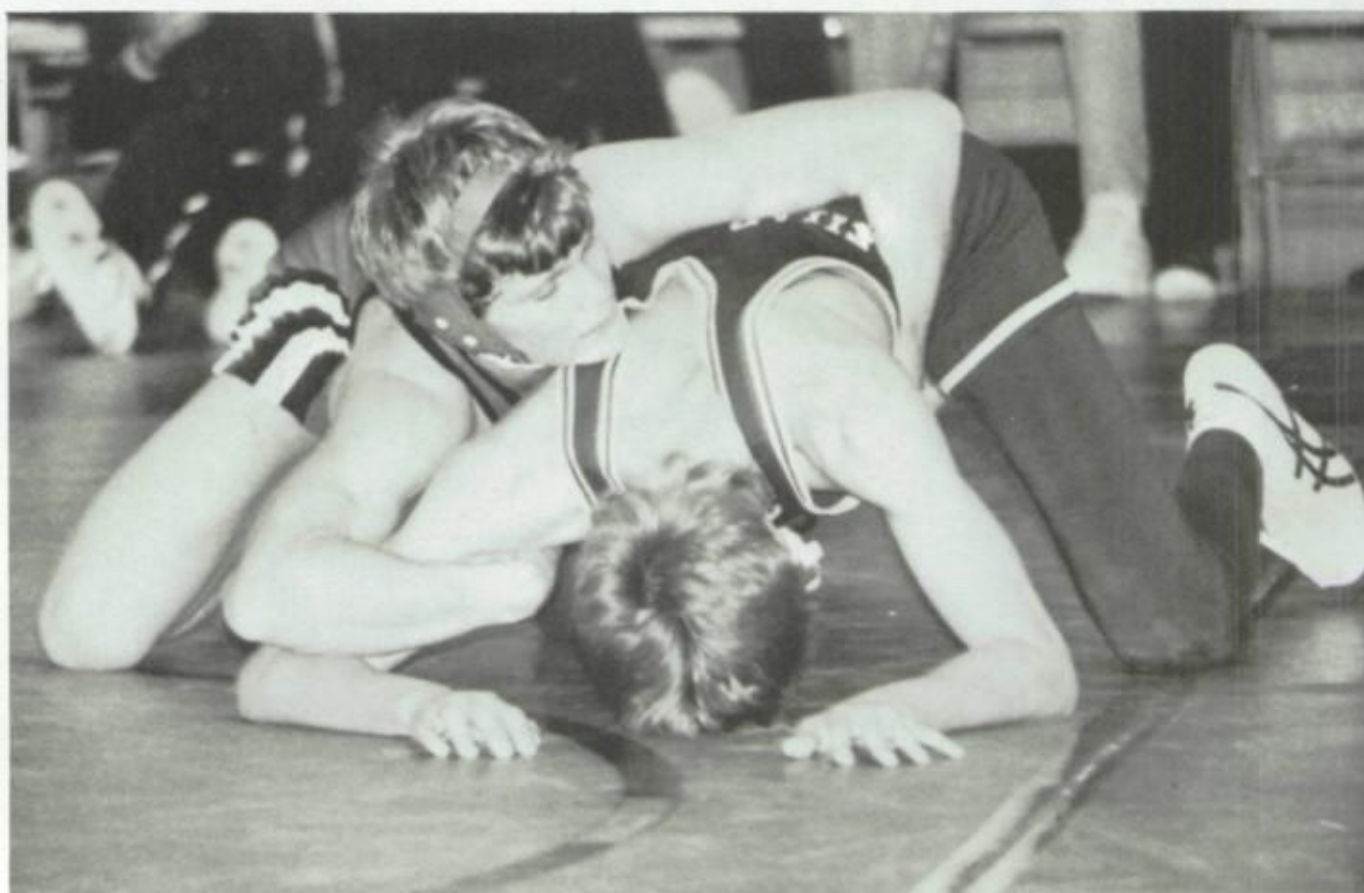

She states, "I encourage it, yes, but only if they really want it and are gonna work hard to achieve the ultimate goal of winning and working as a team." Story provided by the Spectator Staff — John Celaya, So.

It seemed like wrestling was the all around best sport this year for freshmen. All the team members were actually Together and felt like it. "We were like

THE FRESHMAN SOFTBALL season was very victorious from those of other years. Their record was an impressive 8-1, losing only to Moon Valley. The Colts were coached by Betsy Tucker and Becky Fogarty. The coaches strived for excellence and leadership and without each coach's input the team might not have been so successful.

"We had an exciting and fun season. It was the best softball team I've ever been on," beamed Shawna Turner, freshman center-fielder, "Moon Valley was our only real competition, that is except for Washington. They were tough but we still beat them."

The J.V. season didn't start off very optimistic. The holidays really slowed them down. But afterwards, they were on their very own. Their season ended with an 8-4 record. They lost once to Moon Valley and three times to Independence.

The J.V. was coached by Pat Arkin. Ms. Arkin wanted each team member to have respect and good attitudes throughout the team.

"I think our team was really good and I had a fun season," said sophomore co-captain Sue Rademaker.

"Practices were always hard but there was always time for fun," said sophomore second-base man, Stephanie Vanderame.

C.H.S. BASKETBALL

"We're so TOGETHER — like a family, because we're supportive of each other in practice, on the court, and off the court, even if it doesn't show on the outside." — John Akin, jr.

"I feel that our team has great unity. The coaches gave us alot of support along with constructive criticism." — Ben Bloom, jr.

"I thought this year was very important for the seniors because after last year's 1-20 season we worked hard, improved, and made ourselves into a contending team." — Chad Bruns, senior.

"Last year we rebuilt, and this year we were successful. A lot of pre-game talks from the coaches got us up for hard games." — Doug Covey, junior.

"The competition was a lot harder back in Tennessee, but the competition is still pretty hard out here. The biggest difference I've seen are the qualities of the referees, they're not so good out here." — Scott Davis, junior.

"Our team was really organized, we had everything TOGETHER. We're a crazy bunch of guys, but we play the best basketball around." — Brian Imboden, junior.

"It was very difficult to switch schools/teams, but it all worked out for the best. I was really happy to have made the Colt B-Ball team and CORTEZ is a great place." — Dave Macon, senior.

"Team competition was pretty equal because we were all talented in about the same areas. We proved ourselves to be a tough competitive team this year." — Mike Richardson, junior.

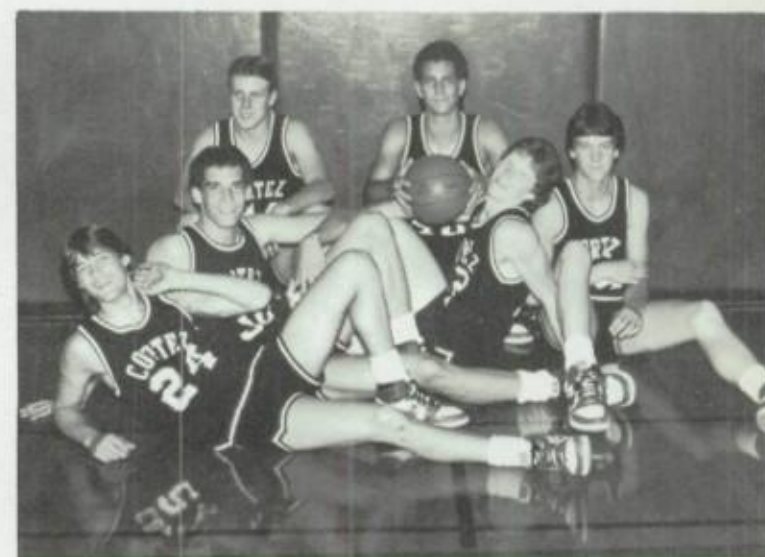

"The friendships were really great after every game. We went to Dave Eppy's house to enjoy festivities after many of the victories and even some of the losses." — John "Z" Zannotti, senior.

MAKING A COMEBACK

After coming off last year's downhill season the team's chance of winning a lot didn't look good, but that's what made this year's team bring the surprising results they did. They went for 1 win, 20 loss record to being one of the strongest teams in the league.

"Last year we lacked in experience, but this year's team was a lot more prepared for the competition." — Bill Knigge, sr.

"When we first started the season we were really good at putting in the points, but our defense wasn't so hot. Since we've worked harder at defense in practice, we've learned to use it in the game as well as put in the points." stated Coach Larry Enos.

"We're a pretty TOGETHER team because we're together even off the court." — Dave Epply, sr.

Senior Bill Knigge held top rebounds for the team at an average of ten per game. Sinking an average of 12 points per game were seniors; Bill Knigge, and John "Z" Zanotti, and junior John Akin.

"It's kind of discouraging sometimes because not a lot of people go to the games, but the ones that do show a lot of SUPPORT." — Bill Knigge, senior.

All in all the Colts were very satisfied with their season. They built up their defense, arose from the low ranks of last year, and managed to be one of the top teams in the league.

Pre-game layup practice always helps for senior Bill Knigge.

J.V. PROVES SUCCESSFUL

"Our season was one of the best we've ever had. Our team got off to a great start and never looked back," commented junior, Chad Schlenker, about the J.V. B-Ball Team. J.V. Basketball had quite a successful season finishing off overall with an 11-8 winning record. They went 8-6 in league competition.

"We did have some tough losses to Prescott and Sunnyslope," said Craig Treese, junior. "But we bounced back and worked really hard to win."

FRESHMEN HOPEFUL

"Despite our record the Colt freshman team played everyone tough, we were dangerous." — stated Coach Bruce Anderson.

The freshman finished the season with a 5-11 record and a great attitude. The freshmen faced tough competition and teams with much taller players. "But we were really respected," added Coach Anderson.

"Each individual really learned something and improved a lot. In fact, in four years a State Championship might be here at Cortez." — Ty Powell.

POWER IN ACTION

As the good weather came around so did the baseball season. Practicing started in February without six players who were still playing on the state bound basketball team.

The coaches had big expectations for the season. The freshmen and junior varsity had new coaches in Turner and Whitter. Coach Corley was back at the helm after a year of absence. Their goals were improving the number of wins over last year and to make it to divisionals. These goals seemed to be the hopes and dreams of the entire team.

TAKIN' IT ON

This year's girls' varsity basketball team had a very successful season. The team was able to take advantage of five returning players and several moving up from both the J.V. and frosh teams.

"We all worked TOGETHER, as a team and that helped us to have a rewarding season." said Kelly Wentzel, junior.

The pressure to go to state was put on this year's girls' varsity team. Both Varsity Softball and Volleyball went to state leaving the path clear for Basketball. Many of the same players played for more than one of the teams. All in all the girls had a great season. "Our team wasn't just victorious, we had a lot of fun in the process," stated Jennifer Roberts, sophomore.

Helping each other with shooting form are Beth Quaing & JoAnn Espinoza.

GOING FOR IT

The girls' J.V. basketball team this year was very enthusiastic. They seemed to win every shouting contest there was between the three girls' basketball teams. There was also a very high noise level on all of the bus rides to away games. The J.V. team had many more qualities than just being loud. The team was hard working and tough. They stayed together even when their six game winning streak was broke.

This year's girls freshman basketball team was constantly improving. "Working as a team made learning together a great experience," said freshman Sonia Lucas. The team was able to keep their cool against some really tough competition. Their team will be able to provide some excellent players for the future years of the girls' basketball program.

Not Pictured: Michelle McKinney, Stormi Nash, Kim Edmonson, Jennifer McRae, Dalean Draghn, Dena Kana, and Robin Hudson.

Once again in 1986 the Cortez Girls' Track Team was exceptional. In Coach Bill Edwards' second year as head coach the team rose to new level of competitive perfection. The team was a perfect blend of new girls with exceptional talent and veterans who have had great accomplishments in the past. The team only had 20 members but one of its strong points was having exceptional athletes able to score points in all events.

Leading the way on this year's team were Rachelle Treadwell (400, 800, & both relays), Sylvia Aiton (400, 1600, & both relays), Michelle McKinney (100, long and high jumps, one relay), Yolanda Allen (100, 200, long jump, and one relay), and Daylean Wagenfehr (1600, and 3200). Assisting with the distance team was Ms. Strickland.

According to head coach, Bill Edwards, "This is the best overall talent we've ever had at Cortez — "The girls have worked hard get where they're at and deserve all the accolades they receive."

Making the running, jumping, drills, warm-ups, and team togetherness Better Than Ever definitely what the girls' track team accomplished this year, and they've let everyone know it.

ADVANTAGE COLTS

MOVING TO the AAA-Division II format did nothing to but help the boys' tennis program. They still played the "Big Boys"; Brophy, Shadow Mountain, and other Division I schools which gave them that most important experience needed for state, and made it easier to play teams in their own division.

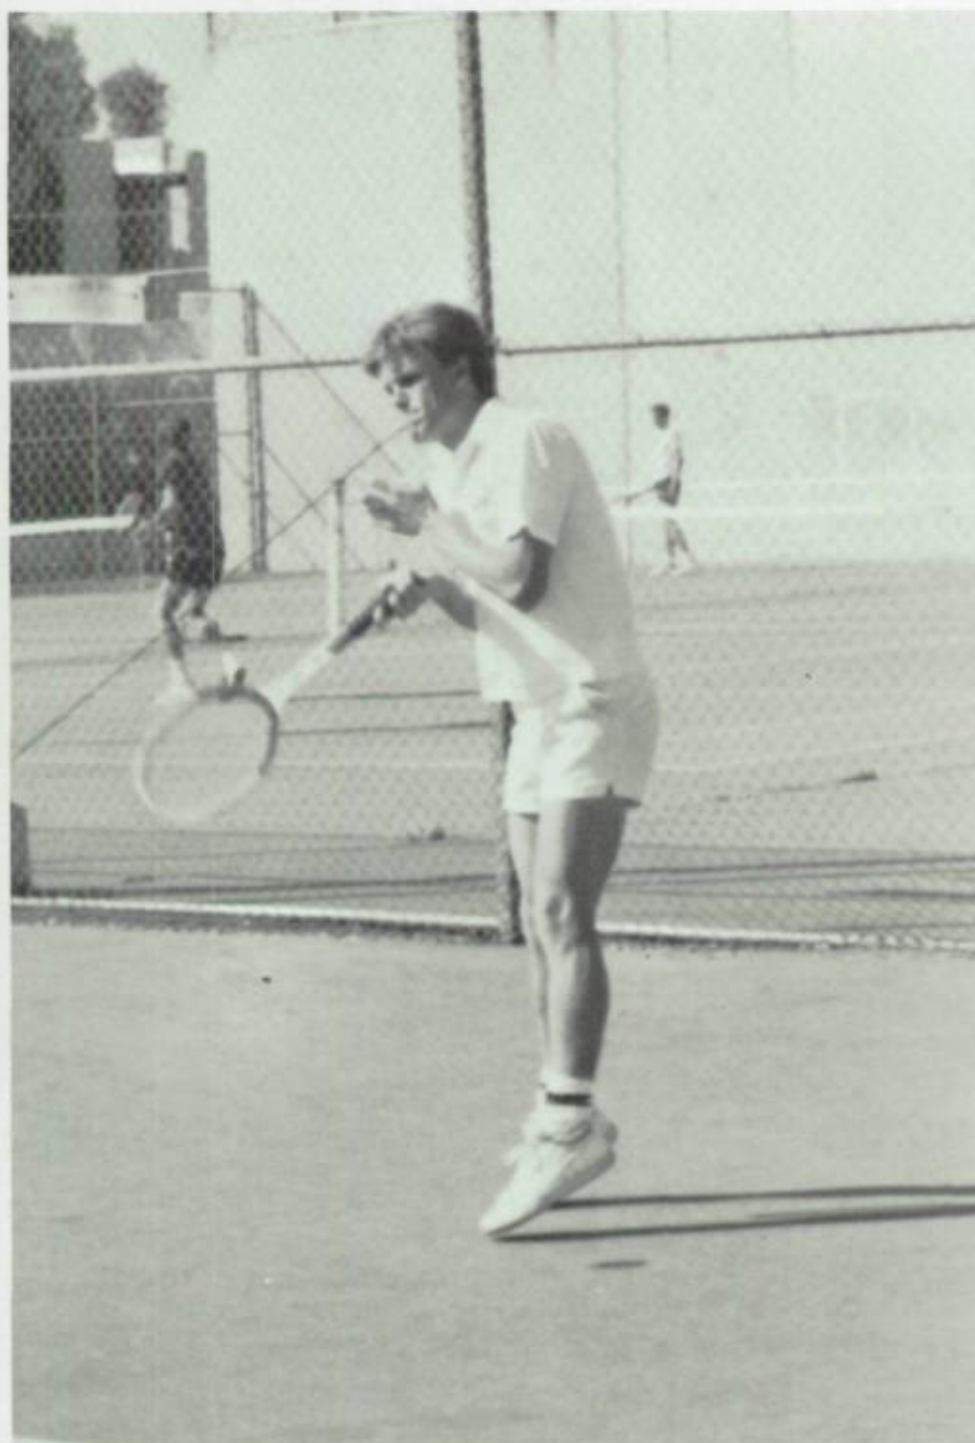

"This year's team started out with only six varsity, two junior varsity players and built up to over twenty before our first match. Most of our new players had never played before and the improvement, with the help of Mr. Bill Thorn, was amazing." expressed Coach Doug Schlenker.

MORE GIRLS

The girls' tennis team seems to be getting larger every spring. With more girls playing, practices were not only challenging, but also fun. Practices were held everyday after school and matches were played on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The season started with a pizza party celebrating wins over Independence and St. Mary's.

"Tennis was really fun this year," said Julie Claiborne, "We had a neat coach and everyone got along well."

Before the divisions Elizabeth Cook stated, "If we continue to play well we should have a pretty good chance of taking it."

All in all the girls had a very successful and fun year. They thought their participation was Better Than Ever.

FIRST DECATHLON TEAM STRIVES FOR SUCCESS

In the first Academic Decathlon held recently, Cortez placed third in the competition against Apollo, Glendale, and Thunderbird at Glendale High School, being edged out by Thunderbird, first, and Apollo, second.

"After we took the lead halfway through the match, we established a mutual confidence that we could win," stated Eric Johnson, junior. "But then the other school overtook us."

The six member team, with one alternate, is coached by Mr. Richard Eddleman and Mr. Robert Furlong. The six juniors, Jon Beck, Myriam Bertoldo, Erik Johnson, Theresa Natwick, Will Rau, Cliff Marlowe, (alternate), and Deidre Salcido, senior, made up this year's team.

"I was very satisfied with the showing they made, considering they are a novice team and it was their first match," stated Mr. Eddleman.

In a meet, two representatives from each school compete against each other, pressing a buzzer to answer. In the end, the school that has accumulated the most points wins.

The decathlon team at Cortez practices twice a week, or every day before the future meet. On February 1st, Cortez competed in the county U.S. Decathlon meet. The Super-Quiz topic was "Immigration to the United States."

Other topics included were: Mathematics, fine arts, economics, language and literature, science, and history.

MAKING THINGS

Attention Students:

Do you know who your class officers are? If not read on.

Class of '86 — The Seniors —
President: Susan Hirohata, Vice President: Michele Richmond, Treasurer: Shawn Phillips, Secretary: Theresa Boynton, Publicity, Manager: Diane Koedyker, and Senators: Diane Kreitler, Mike Overton, Angel Stahler, Stephanie Duffy, Veronica Lucas, Jeanne Fleming, Kris O'Neill, Kim Rudge, Laura Lewitz, Shawna Trapp.

Class of '87 — The Juniors —
President: Jennifer McRae, Vice President: Beth Quaing, Treasurer: Amy Bratt, Secretary:
Chris Riddle, Publicity Manager, Mia Olson, and Senators: Christi Lopez, Liz Cook, Wendy Munn, Lori Baldwin, Rita Summers, Sarah Matheson, Julia Haak, Teri Tanith, MaryAnn Mayo, and Cathy Riddle.

Class of '88 — The Sophomores —
President: Mike Kennedy, Vice President: Shannon Norris, Treasurer: Stephanie Toth, Secretary: Kris Dryfouht, Publicity Manager: Sue Richardson, and Senators: Brian Beman, Greg Stanton, Mike Hart, Amy Flanagan, Michelle Stewart, Monica Garcia, Jennifer Gattis, and Chris Bacon.

Class of '89 — The Freshman —
President: Cesar Gonzales, Vice President: Arnold Montyoo, Treasurer: Marianne Seidjack, Secretary: Becky Teller, Publicity Manager: Jason DiMaria, and Senators: Shawna Turner, Rick Wagner, Jason Tillwack, Evon Johnson, and Callie Carman.

What did they do? Your Senior class put on Homecoming and ran all of it's activities and won first place float with the roaring 20's. Your Junior Class put on prom, which was held at the Phoenix Civic Plaza on April 26, with the theme of "Celebrating Us Together." Your Sophomore and Freshman class held dances and candy sales to prepare for years to come.
"Being a class officer was really fun, I'm glad I got to be part of what was going on," said Diane Kreitler, senior.

HAPPEN BETTER THAN EVER

Above: Listening attentively during a junior class meeting is senator, Lori Baldwin.

Beside: Student council members discuss the order of events before a freshman assembly. Teisha Leavens, Beth Quaing, Kelli Greer, and Kelli Smith.

Hey Cortez —

Do you know who your Student Body Officers were for the year? If not you should know that your President was Joe Gaynor; your Vice President was Kelli Smith; your Secretary was Kelli Greer; Your Publicity Manager was Marci Mondotte; and your Jundiciaries were Michelle Culigan, Scott Okabashi, and Kathy Thompson, Scott Matas, Paul Stanton, Kristi Johnson, and LoAnn Kall.

What exactly did your Student Body do for you? Well they ran and performed all assemblies of the year, they started our first ever "Tailgate Parties," they were in charge of the Holiday fair, and as every year they ran the Talent Show. "The tailgate parties were a lot of fun. There were more people involved that I thought would be.", said Student Body President, Joe Gaynor. When asked about the Talent Show Kelli Smith replied, "We had a lot more involvement this year than in past years and everyone really got involved."

Starting the year off Student body sold pom poms, stickers, pins, and folders to promote spirit. They also helped a spirit assembly and a dance to start school off. Throughout the whole year senior, Joe Gaynor's responsibilities also included reading the announcements every other day during third hour.

Student Body officers for 1986-87 were elected this year in early April. "I think next year's Student body should be pretty good, I've worked with them and they've got some good ideas," said Joe Gaynor.

Taking a look at the student council board is Wendy Munn.

WE ARE THE MIGHTY CORTEZ SENIORS OF '86

This year the senior class had a lot of fun and challenging projects. They started out the year by organizing week long activities to go along with the "Cortez Dances Through The Decades" Homecoming theme. They put in a lot of hard work putting TOGETHER their winning "Roaring 20's" float and decorating the gym for the dance. They knew that all of their hard work had been worth it when Homecoming had been a success.

For Christmas they held their annual Christmas party. It was a party put on for the underprivileged children at the Glendale Children's center. Many seniors participated by adopting a little brother or sister for the day. All of the children, including the seniors had a lot of fun. Many Christmas activities were planned, and children loved their gifts.

To wrap the year up the seniors were invited to the "Senior Breakfast." Michelle Richmond stated, "It was a special time for us to be TOGETHER for one of the last times as the Class of '86." CORTEZ LOVES IT'S '86 SENIORS!!

SCHOOL'S OUT

Although many students gripe, cringe, and frown at the work of a teacher, there are many things about the school's faculty that students don't know. Yes, Teachers are definitely people too!

As we enter high school students begin to learn to like teachers . . . a lot. Many students have a favorite teacher. The most favorite teachers on campus are listed on page 206. This survey was conducted through several junior and senior classes.

When school is out many teachers have their own hobbies, hobbies much like the students themselves. "I like to ten-speed cycle and read on my spare time." — Coach Tom Smith, Gov't. "I like to play tennis weekly and travel as much as I can." — Mrs. Jo Marley, counselor.

Surprisingly enough the teachers even have their own on campus competition. "THE UGLY TIE CONTEST" Every Wednesday it was held to determine the ugliest tie. And as teachers they showed they had Cortez Spirit too.

CHALLENGING WORK

The yearbook staff started its year off in August of 1985. Six staff members attended this past summer's AIPA publications camp, they were; John Celaya, Kelley Vangundy, Veronica Lucas, Rita Summers, Dean Schlenker, and Jeff DiMaria. The Arizona Interscholastic Press Association holds an annual one week summer camp at NAU for Journalism and Yearbook Staffs to learn more about their publication(s).

After leaving NAU the staff finished the ladder, chose the themes, and learned better photography and journalism techniques.

The year started off slow for the staff and stayed that way throughout most of the year. "Yearbook was challenging, it makes you learn what responsibility really is," said Rita Summers, junior.

Although many staffers had much to learn, and there was always work for the Editor and section heads to do, their main goal as well as theme was to make the 1986 Cortesian "Better Than Ever!"

Sm. Photo: Selling writing for the wall in the yearbook at the Christmas Fair was editor, Veronica Lucas, senior.

Discussing what photos need to be taken, who needed to organize it, and who needed to shoot the photos were most often the subjects that Kathy Koser and David Twigger, sophomores, talked about.

Trying his hand at layouts, instead of photography was Jeff DiMaria, junior.

MORE THAN EXPECTED

EDITOR'S LAST WORDS . . .

Well, the year has been real busy, but now we're finally through. There was a lot more work involved in this yearbook than I thought. We had our first big meeting and we talked about yearbook! I handed out assignments, developed film, taught staffers how to do layouts, and just this year learned how to crop pictures myself.

I worked hard with a lot of support from my friends, Mr. Schlenker, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Parks.

I never anticipated all of the time, hard work, and self will it took to put together this yearbook. (Along with lost sleep and occasional insanity!) Throughout the book something was always needed; stories, layouts, and especially photos. We BARELY made it without a class, deadlines were cut too short and some were even missed. Being T/A first hour gave me extra time to get the little things done, but there wasn't always time to get everything done.

Relief! Yes, I'm finally relieved, the book is done. No more 7:15 early yearbook mornings, no more begging staffers to get assignments done, and No More Deadlines!

I sincerely hope that you like this yearbook as much as I do. I was very proud to have been editor and I'll always remember Cortez and the memories.

Veronica Lucas, Senior
Editor-In-Chief

BUT, BETTER THAN EVER THANKS TO:

STAFF "A"

Taylor Publishing Company — For working our book, particularly Wanda Melody and her crew.

Earl Parks — Our Taylor representative for coming in and helping our staff.

Mr. Miller — Assistant Principal of Activities for all of his support and help with sales dates.

Mr. Briggs — Principal for all of his help.

Mr. Schelker — Our advisor for having the yearbook room open when our staff needed to work, for all of his suggestions, help, supports, and especially his ears — for listening to the staff's excuses, suggestions, and changes.

Grand Canyon Color Lab — For rushing all of our printing orders.

STAFF "B"

All the Clubs and Athletics — that supplied our staff with stories/photographs.

Jimmy Celaya — and Joe Gaynor for all of their help, support and advice whenever I needed it.

The Spectator Staff — for any of their work we might have used.

Sergio Vaquera — For the Cover Art

Mrs. Yetter — For the use of her negatives and photographs.

My supervisors, Wendell Akers and Kathy Wentzel — for letting me have time off work to work on yearbook.

Judy Allen — an advisor at this past summer's AIPA Publications camp — For helping me out with layout, editing, and being a leader. Also for letting me snooze in her class and not waking me up! Sorry Judy!

Chip Cheffeld — An advisor at this past summer's AIPA Publications camp For help with our theme and design. (The only person at camp that could eat NAU's food and actually ACT like he liked it.

Mom and Bob — For understanding when I would stay up until 2 a.m. finishing yearbook work at crucial deadlines.

Seniors of '86 — For cooperating with all of our projects.

STAFF "C"

Mrs. Finerman — For letting our staff use her room as a passageway to the darkroom and the yearbook room.

Mrs. Hoffman — For letting me do all the Yearbook and Close-Up business on the Lanier word processor.

Mrs. Majors — For constantly letting me copy yearbook business on the new' copier, and for letting me type on her excellent typewriter.

Mrs. Rempel — For handling all of our announcements on the day they were to be read, and for calling Taylor Publishing Company when I needed to talk to them concerning our yearbook.

All Faculty — For excusing me when I barged into their classes when I needed to speak with staffers or deliver yearbook notices.

Middle: Sometimes math can be fun as shown by juniors; Andy Dezember and Tara Barnett.

Above: Always open for questions was Mrs. Motta, single survival instructor.

After a long day Mr. Miller seems to be agsausted.

School Mascot: COLTS
School Motto: TOGETHER

COLT POWER!

ALMA MATER

Here in the Valley of the Sun
We salute thee, Cortez High.
Loud and true our praises ring,
Echo through the sky
We'll evermore revere thy name;
Let no honor pass her by.
Now we hail thee, Alma Mater,
Praise thee, Cortez High.

CORTEZ FIGHT SONG

Run, Colts, run for victory,
Win for the black and white.
Take Cortez up to the top,
Come on, you Colts, and Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Though we play it fair and square,
Our team will do or die.
So fight to raise that score, team
On, Colts, for Cortez High.

BETTER THAN EVER!

An overjoyed Jeri Dallman give Coach Austerman and overwhelming hug after taking the state championships.

Above: Mrs. Marley, guidance counselor expresses that filling is not her favorite.

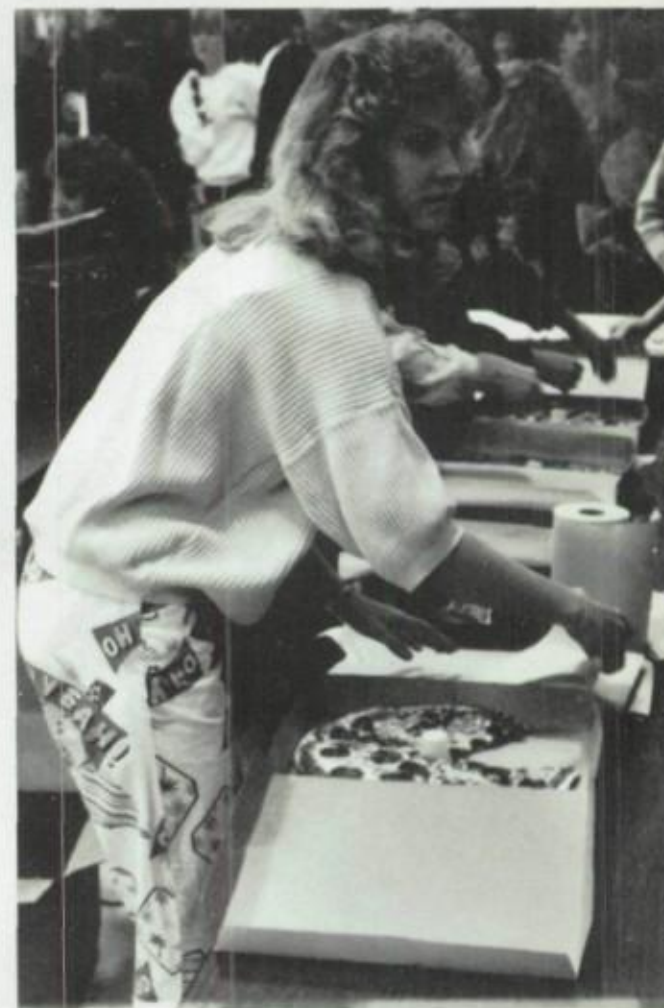

DeAnna Diguessippe, senior, just cannot find an expression to show how enthusiastic she is about govt.

Top Inside: Giving his best throw at the victim is senior, Lon White.

Above: Taking time out to discuss Language Alliance with president, Rachel Leyva, junior is Mr. Mario Fierros. Last year Mr. Fierros was ranked in the top ten for best Spanish teachers across the United States. (First) through fourth year Spanish Instructor and Foreign Language Department Head, as well as being in charge of the Spanish Honor Society (SHH).

Top Middle: Lori Swafford, junior shows Cortez how easy going she can really be.

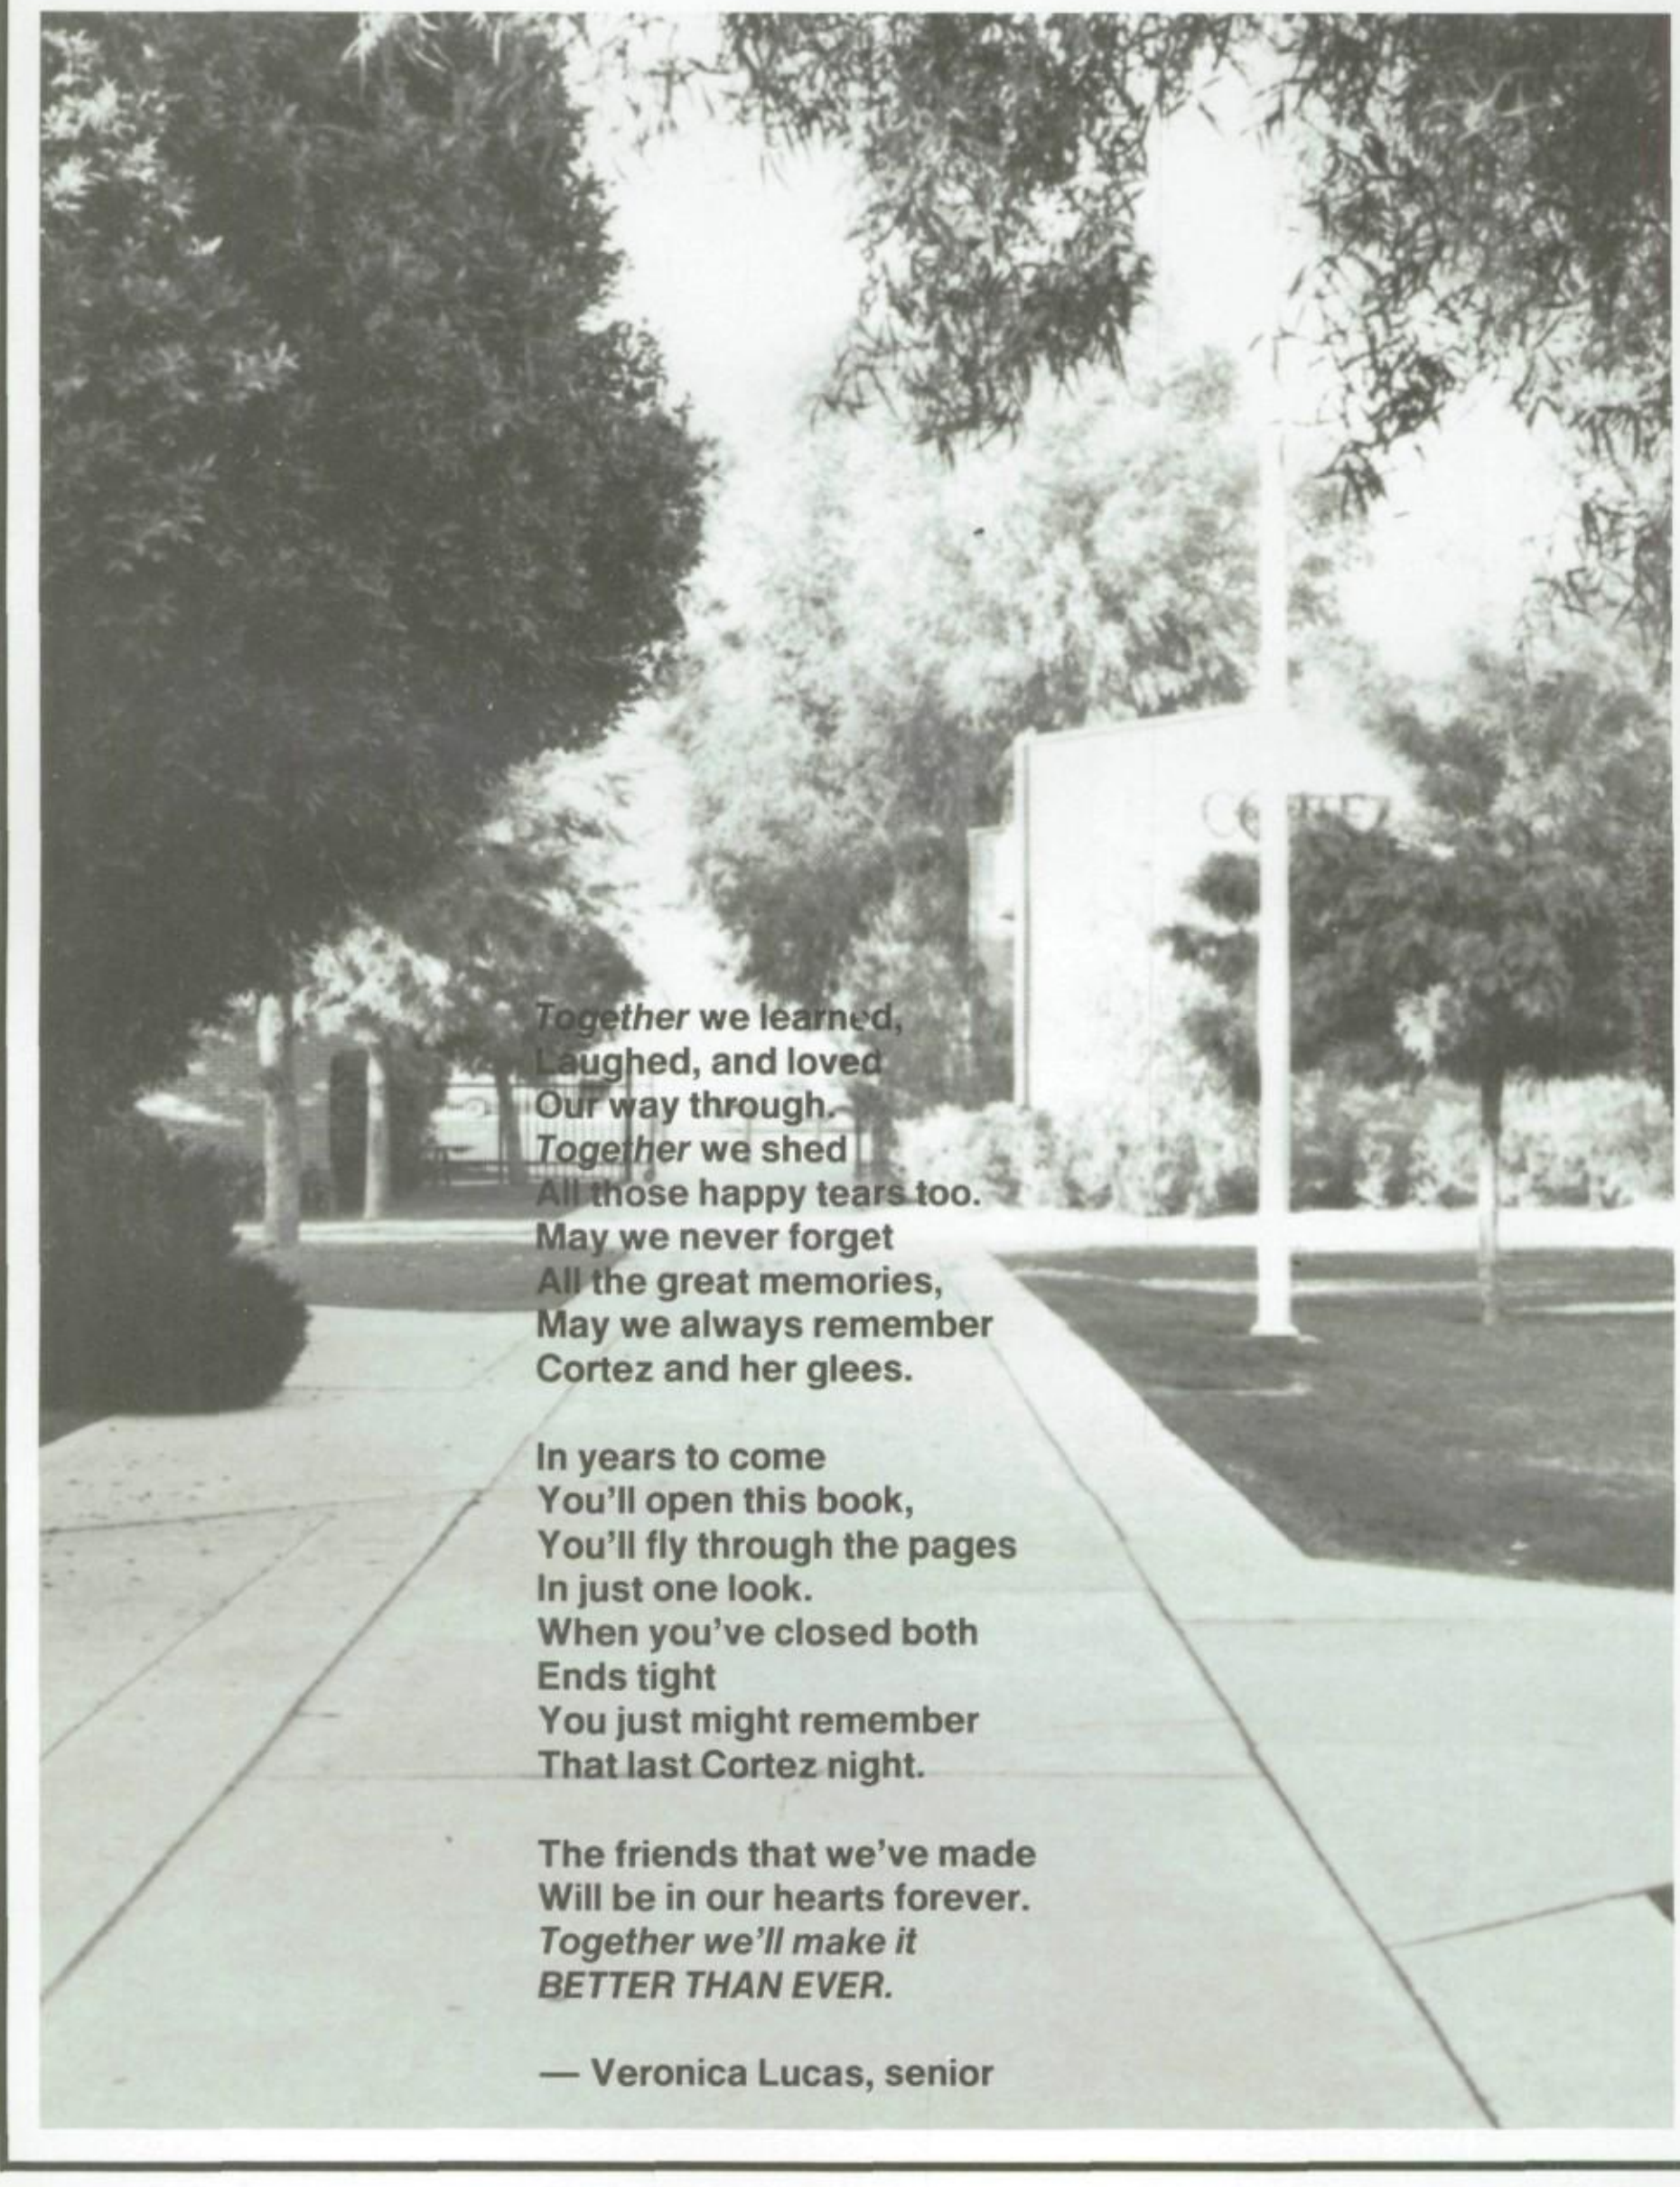

Top Right: FBLA Officers Scott Okabashi, Larry Sanchez, Chuck Sewell, and Sharon Bergdolt take business to the tree. N.P. Dyann Murray. (Seniors)

Inside Top: Mr. Roberson acts as victim in the water balloon throw at the Christmas fair. He actually enjoyed having them thrown as shown above.

*Together we learned,
Laughed, and loved
Our way through.
Together we shed
All those happy tears too.
May we never forget
All the great memories,
May we always remember
Cortez and her glees.*

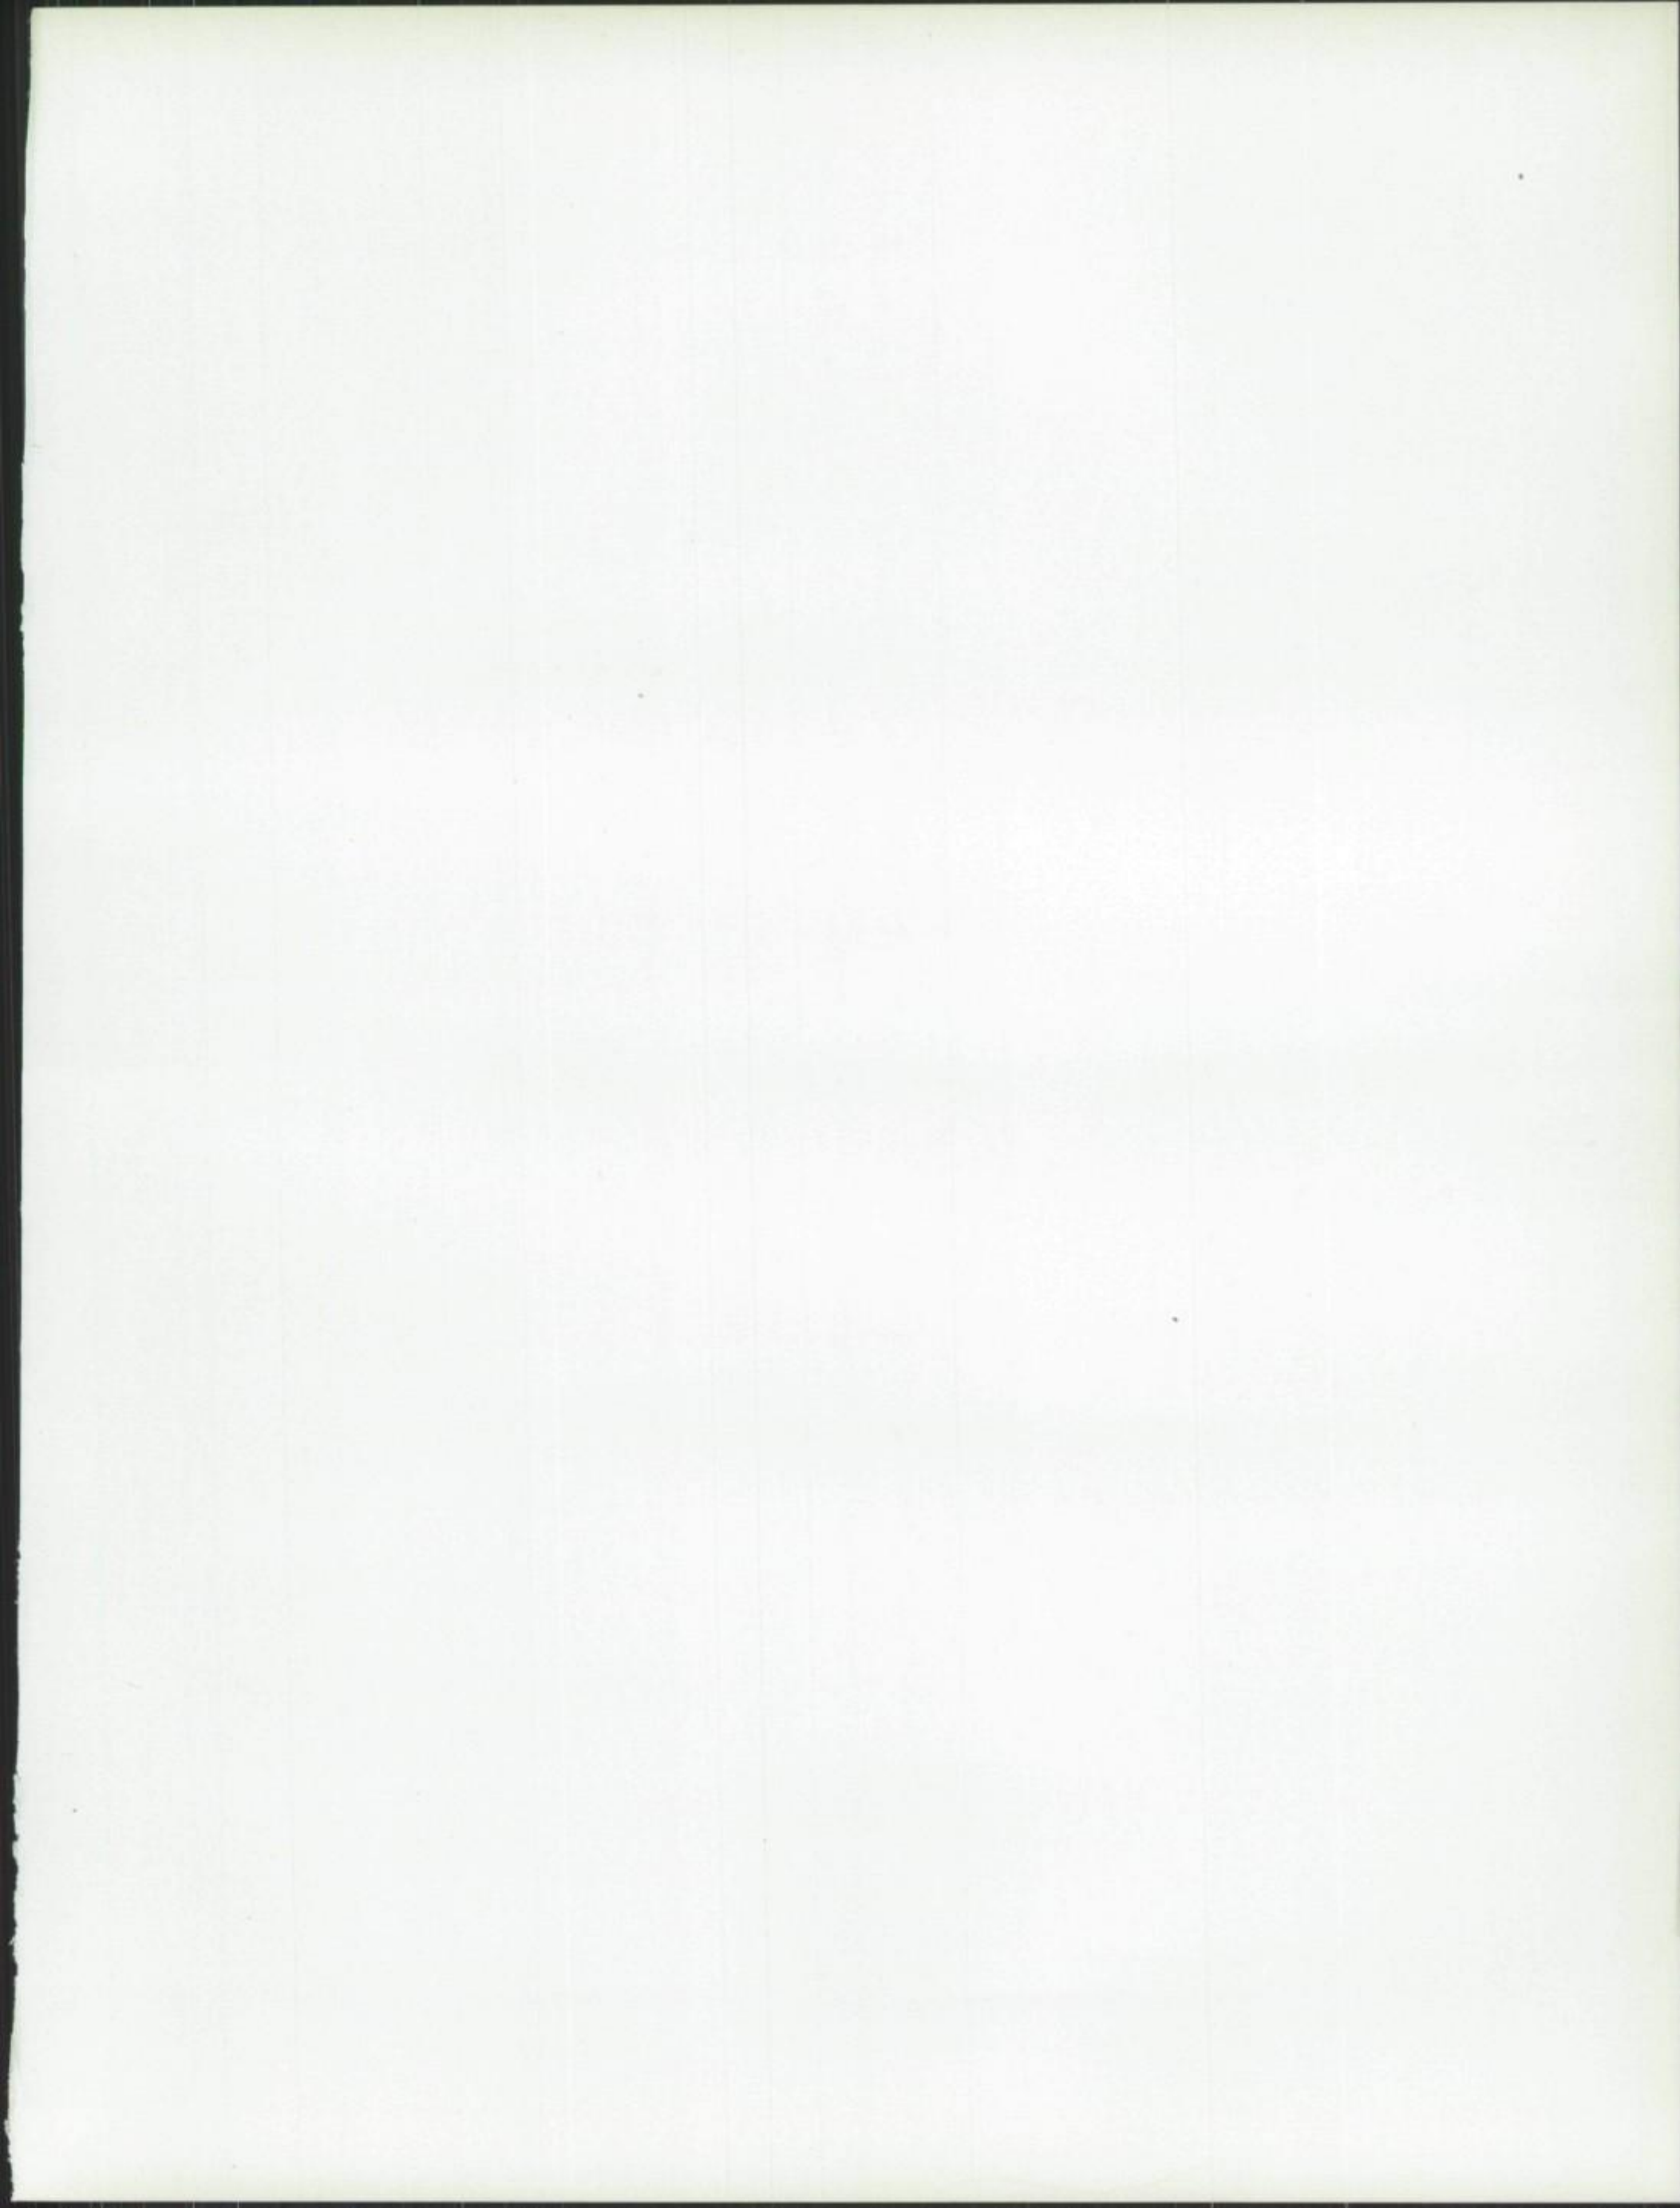

*In years to come
You'll open this book,
You'll fly through the pages
In just one look.
When you've closed both Ends tight
You just might remember
That last Cortez night.*

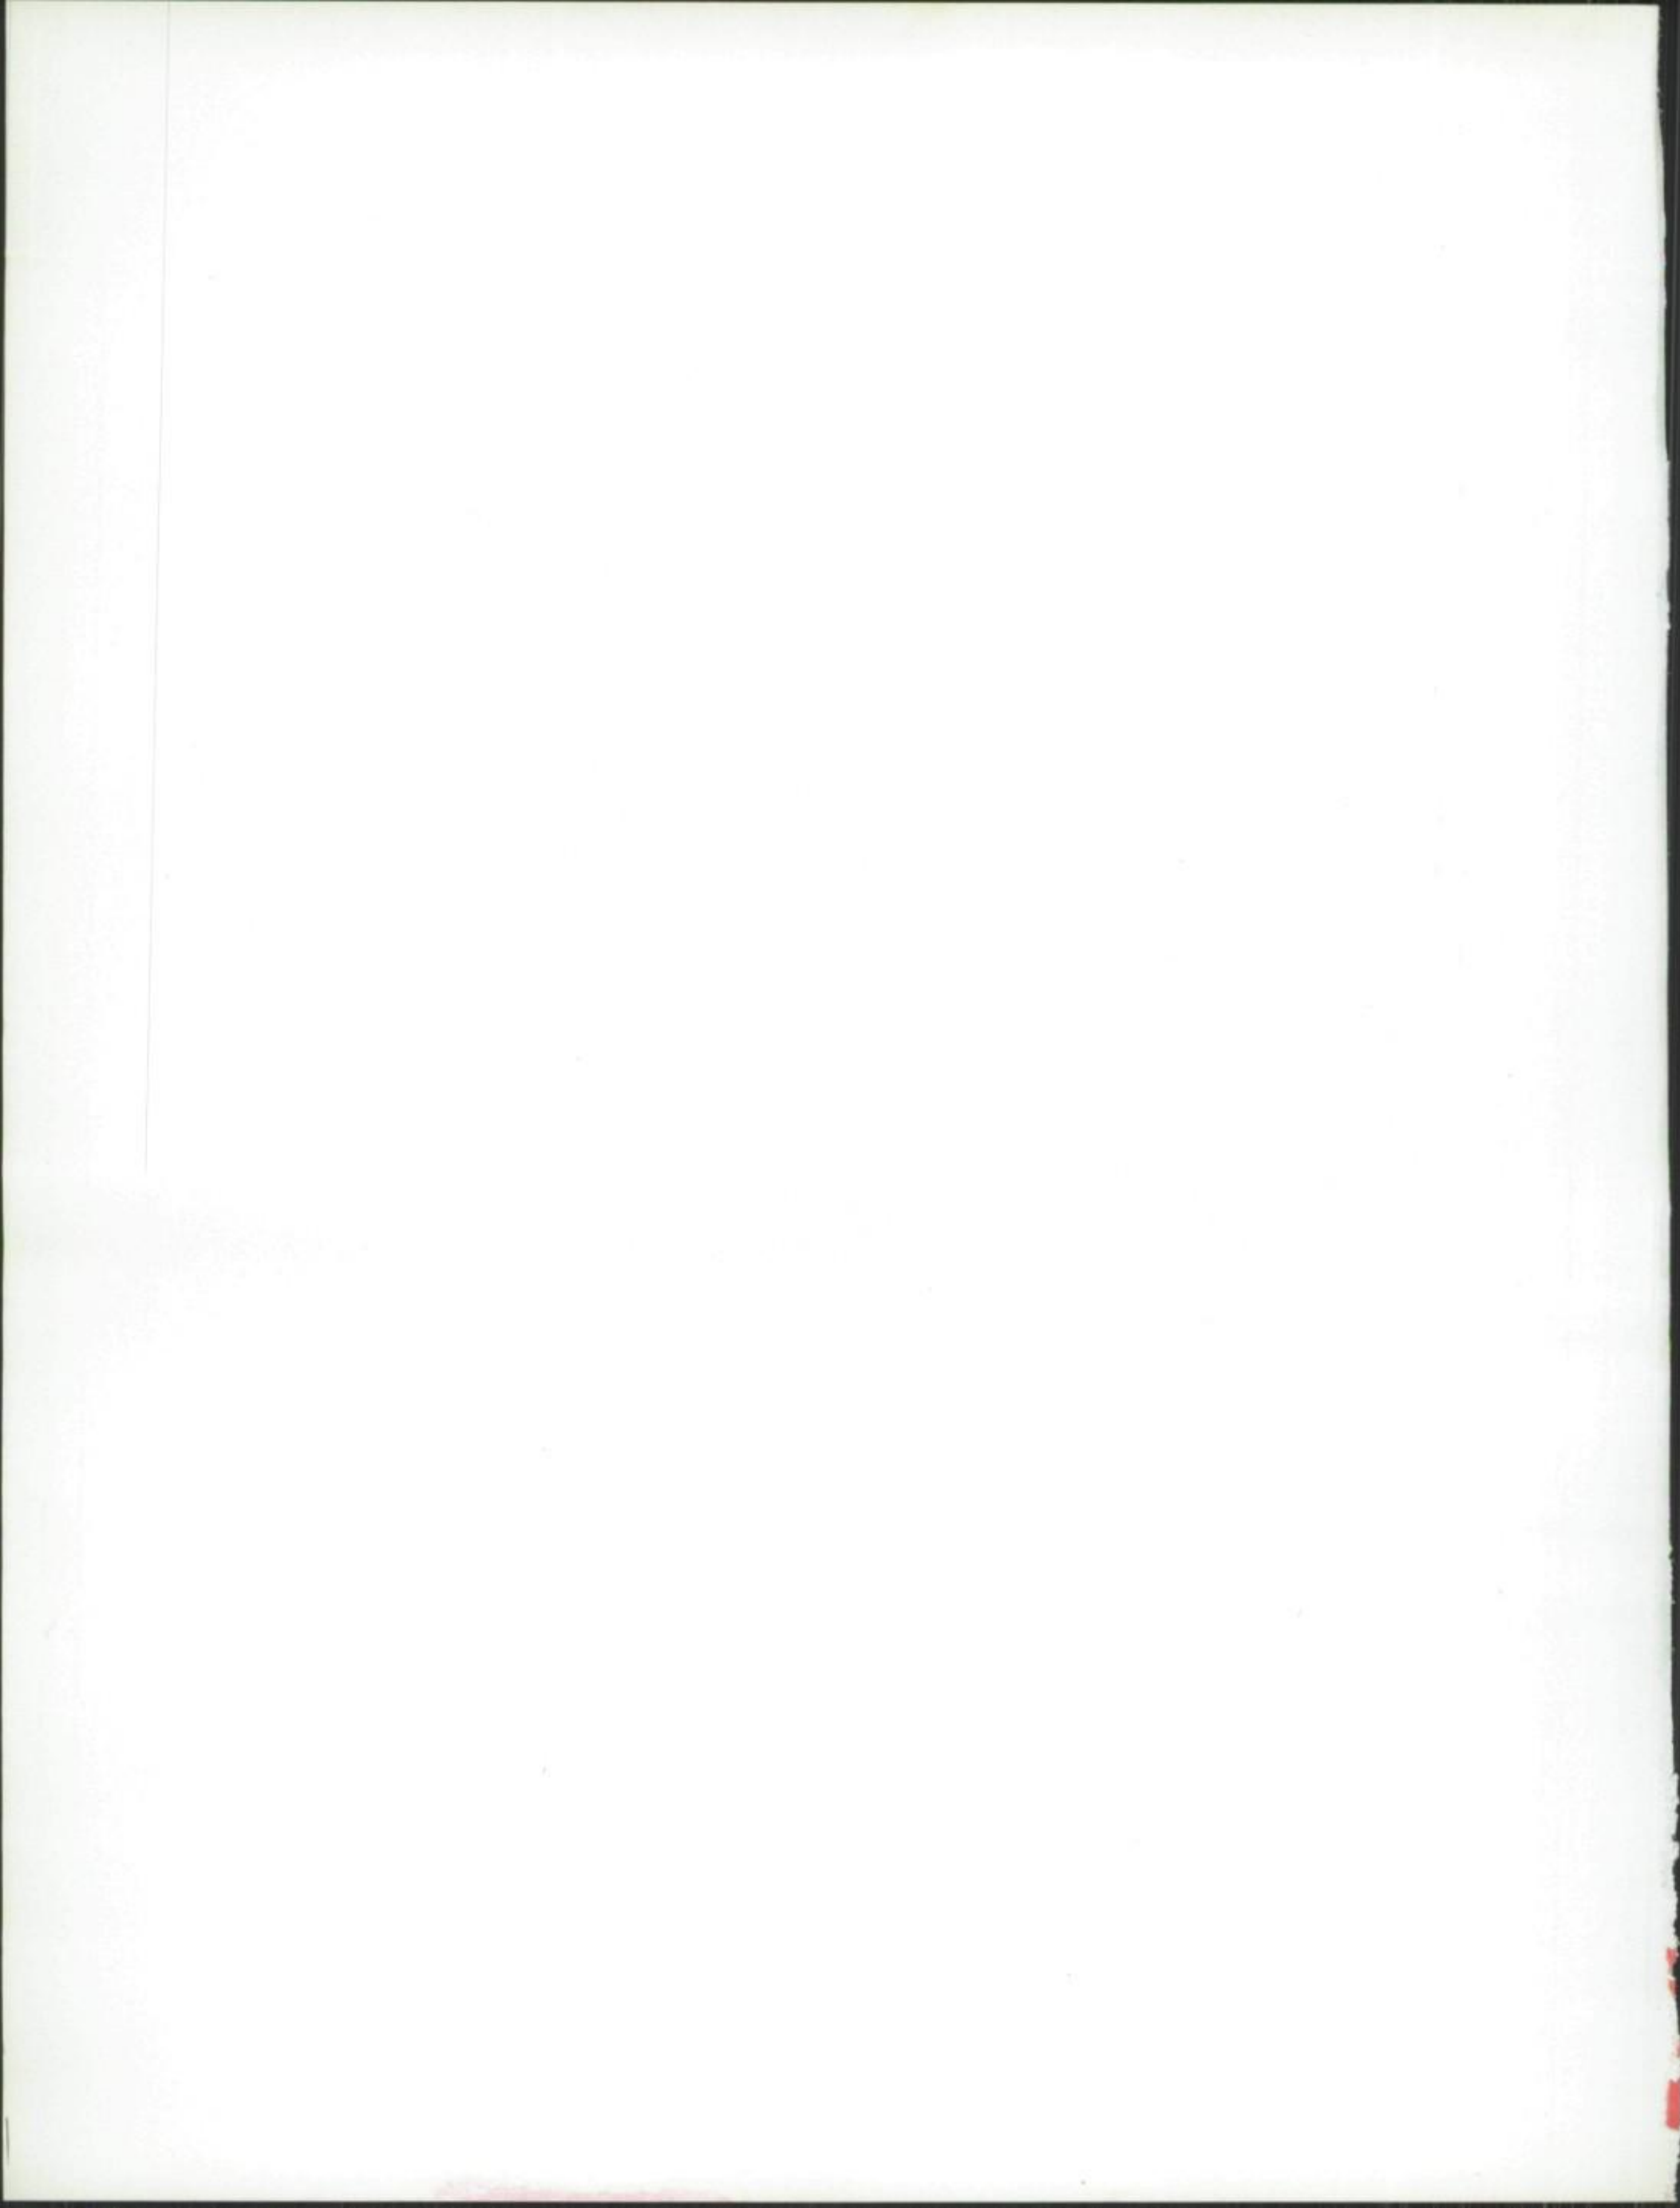

*The friends that we've made
Will be in our hearts forever.
Together we'll make it
BETTER THAN EVER.*
